Homecoming

Service Set

For Sunday

The Staley Memorial Baptist Church announces a yearly homecoming service Sunday with special singers, The Pantana Family.

The singers, associated with the ministries of Dr. Jerry Falwell, are from Liberty Baptist College in Lynchburg, Virginia.

The service begins at 10:30 a. m. with lunch on the grounds afterward, according to Reverend Bennie D. Smith.

Nursery services will be provided. The church is located at 1446 North Graham - Hopedale Road, Burlington.

Pastor And Wife To Be Honored At Special Service

An appreciation day for the pastor and his wife will be observed Sunday, October 1 at Staley Memorial Baptist Church.

Sponsored by the Women's Fellowship Circle of the church, the entire morning worship service will be dedicated to honoring Bennie and Billie Sue Smith for their work for the Lord in the church and community.

The public is invited to attend the 11 o'clock service at the church located at 1446 North Graham - Hopedale Road, Burlington.

New pastor to be installed

The Rev. Evon Pulliam of Winston-Salem will be installed as senior pastor of the Staley Memorial Church of Staley, Sunday, June 3, in the morning service from 10:00 to 11:30, due to the illness of the present pastor, Rev. T.R. York. Rev. York will serve as associate pastor when he is present and when assistance is needed either pastor may be called.

Rev. Pulliam has been serving in evangelistic work, childrens services and vacation Bible School work. She has filled the pulpit in the absence of the present pastor. She and her family will commute for the service and remain a resident of Winston-Salem where her husband is employed. The pattern of the services will remain the same, other than a youth service will begin in the future.

Following the services Sunday a basket lunch will be served at the noon hour in the fellowship hall. Everyone is invited to come and bring a basket lunch.
