Abstract

Exhibit Planning & Brainstorming

Installing the exhibits

Presentations

Benefits

Students have a way of presenting research visually.

Students have better information retention.

Use of the library resources on multiple levels.

Students overcome library phobia and become comfortable in the library setting.

Students become more involved in their research project.

Faculty have a creative method for students to demonstrate their knowledge and research.