Dear Dr. Kerr,

Thank you for your email. The author of the paper has the right to deposit either his/her final version or the APS-prepared version on Wake Forest University's website (employer's website) as long as each of the following conditions are met.

1. The author was employed by Wake Forest University at the time of publication. Papers that were published when you were employed by another institution may not be posted.
2. No fee is charged.
3. The institutional repository must be the repository for the Wake Forest University only (not joint with other universities or other entities).
4. The appropriate bibliographic citation and notice of the APS copyright must be included.

If you have further questions, please let me know.
