DECIDE ON LAW STUDENT BODY OFFICE; SAME SITUATION DEFEASIBLE IN MEETING OF Publications Board; Great Reward Much Doubt

Whitley's political campaign has been more the case of a hit-and-run affair, and all show a rag tag of mud and cussing as their only defensive position for the Member of the general election.

Characterized by hasty action or action, the political front has remained a pallid, moving entity, a political force which the few who are making an honest attempt to join the fray are not achieving what they are trying to achieve, it is reported, are almost certain to throw the election to the Whitley campaign.

At least some of the candidates for the elections are beginning to prepare for the campaign, and it is expected that the last campaign will be the winning one for the political fraternity, a building.

Football Hall is the educational fraternity, a building to join the 26 members to be chosen in the Whitley campaign.

Future Publications Men Must Meet Requirements

The Whitley campaign will be led by Jack Mabry, who was chosen by the Publications Board as being the best man for the job. He is the man who has been chosen for the job of Editor-in-Chief of the college's weekly, The Old Gold and Black, and his appointment was announced by President Thurmond.

The Publications Board met last Monday night to elect a new board to sit on all board sessions Bauer of the Publications Board, and has been appointed to meet the editorial committee of the board that will be responsible for the board's meeting in the future.

The Publications Board will meet on the third week-end of every month and will be responsible for the college publication, The Old Gold and Black, and the student newspaper, The Wake Forest Demon.

A NEW DAY

The Student Publication Board for a year had a policy of qualification for future publications would be the first rule in the improvement program. But now, the policy of the Board for this year is that no student will be allowed to run a publication of a political nature unless he is willing to submit himself to the control of a special Board which will function under the students of the Publications Board. The new Board has three members: Robert A. Brown, George W. Reid, and H. W. Smith.

The idea of this Board is that students will have an opportunity to discuss and express their ideas without being held to the strict rules of the Publications Board. The Board will be composed of three members, two of whom will be elected by the students and one by the Board of Control.

In conclusion, the Board is looking forward to a successful year, with the hope that students will be able to express their ideas in a more free and open environment.

CARTER, CUTHBERT AND MARTIN DISMISS MAJOR RELIGIOUS PROBLEMS IN WESLEYAN PROGRAMS

The students at the college have been working hard to improve the religious programs at the school. The new Board is committed to providing a more inclusive environment for all students, regardless of their religious beliefs.

The Board has decided to hold regular meetings to discuss the needs and concerns of the students. The meetings will be open to all students, and the Board will work to address the concerns of the students.

The students are encouraged to attend the meetings and to bring their ideas and suggestions. The Board is committed to providing a more inclusive environment for all students, and they look forward to working with the students to improve the religious programs at the college.
