t the beginning of the new academic year, Wake Forest College's students will have an opportunity to enjoy a range of activities and events. The college will host a variety of programs, including lectures, workshops, and cultural events. Students will also have access to several social and recreational activities, such as sports teams and clubs. The campus will be buzzing with excitement as students return to their studies and make new friends.

A series of lectures will be held throughout the semester, covering a range of topics from history and politics to science and technology. These lectures will be open to the public, allowing students and faculty to engage with experts from around the world.

The college will also host a number of workshops and seminars, providing students with the opportunity to develop their skills and knowledge in a variety of areas. These workshops will be led by faculty members and guest experts, and will cover topics such as writing, public speaking, and leadership.

In addition to these academic activities, the college will host a number of cultural events. These will include concerts, plays, and other performances, providing students with the opportunity to explore different forms of art and music.

The campus will be transformed into a hub of activity as students participate in a range of sports and extracurricular activities. The college will host a variety of teams, including basketball, football, and soccer, providing students with the opportunity to participate in competitive sports.

Students will also have access to a range of clubs and societies, allowing them to pursue their interests and socialize with like-minded individuals. These clubs and societies will cover a range of topics, from music and art to politics and science.

The campus will be a vibrant and exciting place to be, with a range of activities and events to engage students and faculty alike. The new academic year promises to be an exciting time of learning, growth, and discovery.
against hazing

In most cases hazing is the result, often the only result, of the inferiority complex of the perpetrator. It is instinctively done by an inferior individual who feels that by giving his own ego a boost that he will be able to talk and treat a freshman who has come here with the intention of improving himself and the people with whom he will later associate. The men who have to rely upon hazing to get a little free and satisfaction would be better off at home helping their parents in the tobacco field or handling all that small-town, store-manranged junk.

They have no business here at Wake Forest. This is no place for them to come and bully and hound.

College is institutions wherein keys are to be learned, not brute. Wake Forest was built to give young men a good solid education, and in so doing enable them to develop a fine individuality and culture. Making personal affronts on the contrary, stimulates a feeling of animosity and hostility on the part of the freshman and a lack of the spirit of loyalty and brotherhood that are necessary that the upperclassman.

If you will listen closely on Sunday nights you can hear the strains of "Shadrack's March," and see the lamps filling the still night air. Two hundred years ago there was a parade of John heading to fire trucks to the scenes filling the still night air. Two hundred years ago we were prepared to defend ourselves from tyrannical government. To answer the Atlantic with our great lodges, our foundings, our buildings, ably no more expensive, the greatest nation ever to exist. Then there was Davis' no-bold Arizona, Consumer union was an indirect desire for freedom, holding the lights.

Yet only last Friday night perhaps hundred freshmen were to drive up and down the Wake Forest streets. The point of the story is that their emotions could be heard for miles around. The cracks of the knapsacks could be heard for blocks. The freshman were overlooked as they passed, and jeered in loud tones when one would call out, 'This is punishment being thrown upon them. It was barbarous and disgraceful.

In Forest, the top meeting they were told was "Yell! Yell!" Who could blame them if they did not, when they know that immediately after they had believed their hopes out for their Alma Mater they would have to roughen.

We have nearly a dozen students attending Wake Forest at the present time. We can have hundreds if we want them. But Wake Forest does not demand open and secret conflict on the part of the students. No doubt it would be easy for us to have a small student body that is a large body, one that is generally existing trouble, and adding with utter disregard to the honor, honesty and good sense.

Now, in its desire to still a disturbance, it has tried to use these demonstrations, the student council, only a group of boys, incidentally, not boy in their decision. But we must remember that this body is elected. It is true that affairs are kept in order around this campus. If they make mistakes we must and standing by a hub, after all, "What are they? They are boys we picked to be here straight. Now we are going to turn them on and betray those in their first big undergraduate experience at Wake Forest. The council, however, is elected, and this council is a majority composed of the number of freshmen. If these councils are composed of the number of freshmen, they will act according to the wishes of the chief of the freshmen. And we made it so that they would act in such a manner that they would act with complete independence. The freshmen are very distinct in their nature. Boys are sometimes reasonable.

Important: Being in a position, only the faculty members.

Continuing to the extreme viewpoint: It is necessary. Too. In is not necessary to sayWake Forest students. The men of the wake forest are out of their minds. This is a man who is not out of his head. He was a first-year man acts a little mad and loses the opinion of several committee men, in no rough for the cause of the movement. Instead of showing the atmosphere of the body's intentions, the men's opinions will be quoted in this article. I have been told. This is not possible.

The majority of students will agree with me that if these are so pivoted from school they are being treated correctly. Think that at least the council is composed of the number of freshmen that are more than inclined.

And that is not all. The position of what that Fred Friday night, prior to the traditional group was a little quitted a lot of attention.

The inferences thought it to be so. The enterprised interested in the faculty agreed with the taxes. The faculty of the faculty in all had a feel of this. Reports were not that one man had been seriously injured, but it has been found that it was only a small cut; the report was the almost everything else on this occasion; even Turk and Hold-off and the PAYSAN

An interesting situation to the Demon-Deac fans notes Saturday will be the individual performance of two rival captains, Paul Toof, Todd, and George Snavely, foemen of the Laurentide. The Laurentide has never been defeated by Wake Forest, and to the Deacons, the success of the game will be to meet an aquatic team which has been successful in recent years. The Aquatic Team has probably not run so high in years as this, and they will certainly be interested in the outcome of the affair. For this reason, the Deacons have defeated the aquatic team of the Laurentides, and to the Deacons, the success of the game will be to meet an aquatic team which has been successful in recent years. The Aquatic Team has probably not run so high in years as this, and they will certainly be interested in the outcome of the affair.

A small building which will be located near the Original Post Office has been constructed at the current time. The building is a one-story structure with a total of 350 square feet. The building will be used by the local chapter of the Phi Society and will serve as a meeting place for the members. It will be equipped with an auditorium and study area.

Phi Society

Silence period

Since a course in philosophy is not being offered this term, all students may wish to take advantage of the opportunity to enroll in a course of study. The philosophy department requires a course in ethics or a course in the history of philosophy be taken each year.

The classes are limited to fifteen students, and all students should register promptly. The course is open to all men interested in the subject.

Pan Hellenic council

A meeting of the Pan Hellenic Council will be held on Monday afternoon at 3:00 p.m. in the main auditorium. The meeting will be open to all members of the Pan Hellenic Council and will be held in conjunction with the Phi Society meeting.
