B. S. U. Officers Elected at Last Meeting Before Halidays; Will Finish Office First of Next Month

In the general election of the Rep. party Saturday afternoon before Sunday school gatherings, George Z. Jordan, James W. Davis and Tommie Byrd were unanimously elected to lead the sell gate activities for the year. The results were announced by the present council for the office. The executive council is composed of the Re- publican head of the B. U. U. department and the head of the B. U. S. department through one of its most prominent men.

In an interview, President-Director Griffen said, "Our office this year will be unusually strong. We hope the new council can help encourage the growth of our students in the religious organizations and increasing the efficiency and depth of our activities.

The election was held in the present vacated library building and was attended by a large num- ber of students. After the polls closed the religious organizations of the campus, such as the Christian Science, Muslims, and the Y. W. C. A. presented the nominations of the present officers. These officers were President, Charles E. Griffin; Vice-President, J. Griffin; and Secretary, Miss J. Davis. After the election was over, the new officers were announced from the floor.

J. Davis, a junior, was chosen to lead the College Banner Band. The group comprises the present members of the Phi Beta Kappa club. The new officers were chosen from the floor.

The Wake Forest baseball team is now well under way and even the most pessimistic of followers for the Owls are more than pleased with the showing that has been thrown up this season. Of course, the most prized victory was the one over State Monday. The club came through with a team and scored a surprising 7-6 victory over our old foe. A record crowd of 3,500 watched the game and was very well pleased with the performance that was turned in by the Wake Forest team.
