Leslie Howard says Luckies are "tops" with his throat

"Years ago, an ambitious young actor, I was impressed with how well Luckies had helped me in training my voice and how well they suited my idea of a perfect cigarette. That impression has continued to the present day.

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, accountants, doctors, reporters, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 50% stated that they personally prefer light smoke.

Mr. Howard verifies the wisdom of this preference by doing other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh stimulants removed by the exclusive process.

"It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.

SET SWIFT PACE

Student Invited to Athletics Panel From New York; Honors Him Best

Wake Forest college athletic teams during the regular season are competitive in all sports, whether it is football, basketball, tennis, or track, setting a pace which is a source of pride both to the institution and its friends.

The basketball season is drawing to a close, and the Wake Forest team has been a consistent winner at an early age. The football team has also shown promise of victories in the future. In addition, the Wake Forest tennis team has been successful in recent years.

Advice to Prospective Wake Forest Students

Annie Kirkland, author of "How To Be a College Student," offers advice to prospective students. She suggests that choosing a college should be a decision made by the student, not the parents. It is important to consider the location, size, and academic offerings of the college.

One of the most important aspects of college life is making friends. Annie Kirkland recommends that students should not be afraid of meeting new people and getting involved in activities.

The team has been working hard to prepare for this game, and is looking forward to playing against these talented players. The Deacons plan to give their best against Drexel University, and are confident that they will be able to compete with this talented team.
The house believed they heard the "SEVENTH HEAVEN" singing system, and Dr. Easley, with the students. Representing Mr. Githens, with the amplified symphony music that would have been sought by the cove pages, the students were gathered together they might enter church keys.

When questioned on the robbery, Githens said that he had no intention to be the victim of the theft. The student who reported the incident was present at the time, and was able to give a description of the thieves.

God bless the students of the University of North Carolina who are striving to improve the campus and the community through their musical and cultural activities.
