Classes Holding Nominations and Final Elections
Bill Campbell is Elected President of Incoming Junior Class
Senior Nominations to Be Held Thursday

Elections Will Follow on Monday, With Banquet Tuesday; Tommy Gilliam Elected Junior Class President; Voting for Sophomore Class President Will Begin Monday Afternoon

All college classes are holding this week their final round of elections for officers for next year.

Bill Campbell, the newly elected president of the incoming junior class, is a re-assertor of election held from one to five votes. Wednesday afternoon nominations were taken for the executive and class bulletins, and Thursday night all elections are open from 7 to 8:15 p.m. in the junior union.

Twenty-five candidates nominated final round for president of the junior class. Twenty are to be elected for officer in the junior union class. First junior elections were held on Monday afternoon, with over 60 votes cast.

Three representatives to be nominated to the junior union class. All members of the junior union will be presented by the nine officers. Five will work for seal, C. L. Dauber, and Bernard W. Smith.

For treasurer: R. S. McDonald and W. W. Wells. Both are juniors.

For junior council: Ray Eichhorn for the council; Pat Brown for secretary. Both are seniors. These elections were announced Thursday afternoon.

Auditor Vote was also held Thursday as to whether or not the new constitution, approved by the last regular meeting of the junior union board, should be enacted. Votes tabulated as to the five officers.

In the form of business, the junior class Thursday night elected a system to admit a permanent post for the class. Last week the class made the job of auditor too tiresome and burdensome for most members. The auditor, stated the junior union board, was elected as representative from the whole junior union board. Senior Wally was also nominated for the position.

FRATERNITY CUP WILL BE AWARDED

Scholarship Cup to be Given Next Friday by Student Council

The much coveted Fraternity Scholarship Cup will be awarded this coming Friday night to the ten social fraternities which have the highest scholastic average during the year.

The contest was recently won last year by Gamma Sigma, whose 15 members had an average of 89.4. Gamma Sigma received extremely high marks for its activities last year, and it is expected that this year the fraternity will repeat when Kappa Alpha won it and repeated permanently. Kappa Alpha has recently won the cup for the third time in five years. The cup was first awarded in 1929 when Alpha Xi Delta won it, and it was then given to the fraternity that had the highest scholastic average. The cup has been given to the fraternity with the highest scholastic average each year since then.

The fraternity with the highest scholastic average will receive the cup, and the fraternity with the second highest scholastic average will receive the scholarship.

Fraternity members are eligible to compete for the cup in 1930. Alpha Xi Delta, Delta Sigma Chi, and Delta, which were the three highest in average last year, are expected to make a strong showing this year.
