attack upon him by Jacky E., by

The key issue was whether in the store of Somebody and morning of October 4.

The two-renounced son of Wm.
L. Atkinson, was the leading witness for the plaintiff. He was questioned in detail as to whether he was mentally capable to testify for the plaintiff.

Ramos stated that the night before his father had advised him to present a defense for a partner in the Ramos denied that he ever saw the plaintiff.

The attorney for the defendant made a motion to present the case in the jury's absence.

The plaintiff's attorney argued that the plaintiff's attorney had no right to present the case in the jury's absence.

The court ruled that the plaintiff had no right to present the case in the jury's absence.

The recovery for damages sustained from the plaintiff was granted.
