President Gaines Delivers Helpful Address to New Men.

ENJOYABLE RECEPTION HELD IN GYMNASIUM.

Annual "Shirt-tail Parade" Concludes Program; Frosh Given Warm Welcome.

The registration of between 200 and 250 new men for the college has been completed. This year the registration took place in the gymnasium and was followed by an enjoyable reception for the freshmen.

This event was held on Wednesday evening, and was attended by President Dr. Hubert Poteat, President Dr. W. P. Gaines, Mr. Max G. Yancey, Mr. W. H. Hargis, and Dr. N. G. Gayle, dean of the college.

On Wednesday evening at 10 o'clock the registration of the freshmen was concluded, and the reception followed immediately. The reception was held in the gymnasium, and was attended by the entire faculty and staff of the college.

Registration of upper classmen was also completed on Wednesday evening, and the entire student body was present for the occasion.

President Gaines addressed the freshmen on the importance of education, and urged them to make the most of their college experience. He stressed the importance of hard work and dedication, and reminded them of the value of education in life.

The freshmen were then treated to a enjoyable reception, which included refreshments and music. The atmosphere was lively and festive, and the freshmen seemed to enjoy themselves.

The reception concluded with the announcement of the new class of students, and the freshmen were dismissed to return to their dormitories.

Oriention Week Proves Instructive

The orientation period for first-year students was successfully completed on Wednesday evening. During the week, the freshmen were introduced to the campus, and were given an opportunity to familiarize themselves with the various facilities and departments.

The freshmen were divided into small groups, and were assigned a counselor to guide them through the week. The counselors were graduates of the college, and were well acquainted with the campus and its resources.

During the week, the freshmen were given an overview of the college's history, and were introduced to the various departments and faculties. They were also given an opportunity to meet with faculty members and to attend classes.

The orientation period was designed to help the freshmen adjust to college life, and to familiarize them with the campus and its resources. The freshmen seemed to benefit from the experience, and were well-prepared to begin their college careers.

While the above letter may seem to be a bit old-fashioned, it is worth noting that the concept of a college yearbook is still very much in existence today. In fact, many students still look forward to receiving their yearbook as a keepsake of their time at school.

Although some things may change over time, the true value of a yearbook is that it provides a record of the memories and experiences of a particular group of students. Whether it be the yearbook that was published in 1928 or the one that will be published this year, it serves as a reminder of the life that was lived on campus.

Yours truly,

The Wake Forest College

Johannes Quinn, receiving third of the 127 thieves, back on the job again, is looking forward to another prosperous season. Members of the student body also witnessed games between the varsity and Frosh teams earlier, once more showing old-time weaver as time when the student body, Harrison, a淋, looked forward to the last minute to hold them. This was quick to learn the fundamentals of the position and now seems to have fully justified the coaches' wisdom in the last few positions. Cofall, second choice.

Coach Hal Weir, mainstay at guard for years, is due largely to the brilliant showing as second choice.

Eight New Courses Offered This Fall

Several new courses have been added to the curriculum this fall. The faculty, recognizing the need for modern study, has added courses that are designed to meet the demands of the present-day world. Among the new courses offered are:

1. Modern Languages and Literature
2. Business Administration
3. Economics
4. Psychology
5. Sociology
6. Anthropology
7. History of the World
8. Art History

These courses are designed to provide a comprehensive education and to prepare students for a variety of careers. They are taught by experienced faculty members and are offered in the mornings and evenings. Students are encouraged to take these courses as part of their regular curriculum.
