"Nightline" panel discusses investigative reporting

By KARL HELLMAN

As a special edition of ABC's "Nightline" aired March 11, 1997, the ABC President, David Gurman, addressed the nation on the issue of longer sentences for those convicted of murder.

The program, titled "Nightline", was hosted by ABC News anchor Dan Harris and produced by ABC News Executive Producer Susan Swart. The program focused on the issue of reforming the criminal justice system.

Several students and faculty members asked questions of the panel, which included "PrimeTime Live" executive producer Dan Swart, former ABC News President, Bill Wales, and the executive producer of CBS "60 Minutes", Howard Finkelstein.

Harris opened the discussion by noting the high number of Americans in prison and the length of their sentences. He then asked the guests to discuss their views on whether longer sentences for murder are necessary, and whether the current system is working.

Students and faculty members from ABC News and FOX News, who appeared on the show, praised the program for raising awareness about the issue.

The "Nightline" panel was also open to the general public, and many students and faculty members attended.

Several students and faculty members asked questions of the panel, which included "PrimeTime Live" executive producer Dan Swart, former ABC News President, Bill Wales, and the executive producer of CBS "60 Minutes", Howard Finkelstein.

Harris opened the discussion by noting the high number of Americans in prison and the length of their sentences. He then asked the guests to discuss their views on whether longer sentences for murder are necessary, and whether the current system is working.

Students and faculty members from ABC News and FOX News, who appeared on the show, praised the program for raising awareness about the issue.

The "Nightline" panel was also open to the general public, and many students and faculty members attended.
Campus will get face-lift this summer

New courtyard will be created between Benson University Center and Tribble Hall

By Bruce Taylor

Continuing Break

After weeks ofcking through the mud, students will soon see a completely new landscape is the courtyard between Tribble Hall and Benson University Center. According to Bill Sidney, the director of facilities management and operations, the new landscape is expected to be completed by the end of this month. The new courtyard will be a daydream come true for Winston-Salem State University students who have been waiting for it to begin since the beginning of the 1978-80 academic year.

The students, through the work of curator G. W. Geary, say the area was caused by the construction of the old campus and will be modified to the extent that it is possible.

"It's a very important thing for students," Sidney said. "It is the last of the sub-committee include Mary Gerardy, the assistant vice president for student life; Peter Weigl, the vice president of student life and Ken Zick, the vice president of student life and administration.

Several other students are concerned that the issue is still under debate.

Calligraphy workshop held

A hands-on workshop on the ancient art of Chinese calligraphy will be held from 1-3 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 13, in the third-floor alcove at the office of the professor of calligraphy at the university. The exciting Chinese painting and calligraphy center in the area of Chinese art students, the assistant vice president for student life, said.

After presenting a general history of Chinese characters, the professor will demonstrate how they are formed.

Study abroad available

Study abroad scholarships are now available for students who wish to study at the University of California, San Diego. The scholarships are available to students enrolled in any of the university's undergraduate programs.

The scholarship is available to students enrolled in any of the university's undergraduate programs.

CPR training offered

CPR training will be offered for four free courses in the university's Campus Recreation Center. The courses will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Meetings for majors held

The department of health and sciences will hold two meetings, one at Reynolds Gym 308, at 1:30 p.m., and a second at 6 p.m., at the university's Department of Health Science.

The meetings are for students interested in majoring in health sciences.

Foundation offers scholarships

The Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation is accepting applications for its new scholarship program, which is open to students of North Carolina and is limited to students of North Carolina and its bordering states. The application deadline is March 1, 2004.

The foundation is also accepting applications for several other scholarships.

For more information, call 725-2341.

Singer/storyteller to speak

El Roubine, a singer/storyteller from Woodford, Massachusetts, will perform in Spelman Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 22.

Roubine will also give a 9 a.m. class at the same time.
The recent $474 million dollar increase in the University of North Carolina’s endowment is one of the major reasons why financial aid for students is available this year. According to the 1996 financial report, the university’s endowment increased from $25.2 million to $25.2 million, up $474 million. The report includes all of the university’s financial activities for the 1996 fiscal year, which ended June 30. The account was prepared by the certified public accounting firm of Ernst & Young.

“A healthy debate at the university level is important in order to maintain the university’s tradition of excellence,” said Kathy Marwick, assistant director of the Office of Communications. “A healthy debate is important in order to maintain the university’s tradition of excellence.”

According to the Office of Communications, the increase in the university’s endowment is due to a number of factors, including increased student enrollment, increased giving, and increased alumni giving. The report also notes that the university’s endowment is used to finance scholarships, financial aid, and other programs.

In addition to the increase in the endowment fund, the university’s financial report reveals that the university’s financial aid for students has also increased. The report notes that the university’s financial aid for students has increased by $1 million since the 1995 financial report. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is now used to support the university’s tradition of excellence.

The report notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence.

The report notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence.

The report notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence.

The report notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence.

The report notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence.

The report notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence.

The report notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence.

The report notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence.

The report notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence.

The report notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence. The report also notes that the university’s financial aid for students is used to support the university’s tradition of excellence.
Seoul — An important member of the North Korean ruling party and a confidante of North Korean leader Kim Jong-un sought asylum at the South Korean embassy in Beijing yesterday. Hong Jang-hyo is the highest-ranking official from North Korea ever to defect to the south. Analysts say the defection indicates possible strains in the ruling hierarchy of the country, and might be evidence of any internal conflict.

Jang-hyo was a member of the Central Committee of the ruling Workers' Party in North Korea, and considered an influential revolutionary of the ideology of the state. He was involved in a number of major policy decisions, including the opening of the North Korean embassy in Beijing.

North Korea was preparing for the 55th birthday celebration of Kim Jong-un this month, but the defection is likely the only one in a long series of conflicts for the country, highlighted by economic instability and two years of flooding which have caused widespread famine.

U.S. jets media into Cuba

Washington — Aiming to bring attention to the plight of Cubans in their country, the Cuban government has recently admitted that it is facing a major economic crisis. The move came after conservative leaders such as Jesse Helms (R- N.C.) indicated that they did not object to the practice. CNN already has approval to set up a bureau from the Cuban government; however, the approval would be forthcoming.

The U.S. government expressed doubts as to whether the agreement that allows media into Cuba, and Cuba officials give an indication as to which of the approval would be forthcoming.

■ Academic pilots closer to strike

Washington — American Airlines was considering a request for Friday evening in anticipation of a pilots strike, and officials for the pilots' union said that the pilots were closer to approval of the strike.

The pilots have been negotiating with American Airlines for a pay raise offer to six percent on Wednesday, but pilots continued to newList media into Cuba.

■ Mad scientists

Sophomores Joeli Hawen and Jumoke Ladapo and Teaching Assistant Shelby Johnson work on a biology lab.

■ Student Alumni Council holds ‘Dinner with Twenty Strangers’

The purpose of the program is twofold. A committee selects the participants from a group consisting of faculty members, student guests, alumni and guests. The dinner with twelve strangers is intended to be a way for students to learn about various activities and organizations on campus, the research or extracurricular interests of faculty members, or what it was like to attend the university last year. The dinner with twelve strangers can also be a way for students to learn about various activities and organizations on campus, the research or extracurricular interests of faculty members, or what it was like to attend the university last year.

The dinner with twelve strangers can also be a way for students to learn about various activities and organizations on campus, the research or extracurricular interests of faculty members, or what it was like to attend the university last year.

■ SUMMER SCHOOL FOR PEOPLE ON THEIR WAY TO THE TOP

If you didn’t sign up for ROTC as a freshman or sophomore, you can still catch up this summer by attending Army ROTC Challenge. A six-week course in leadership. Apply now. You may qualify for a $4,000 scholarship and advanced officer training when you return to campus in the fall.

The program is designed to initiate contact between the community of Winners and the community of students, and to foster interaction between students and faculty in a casual setting. Gold said the dinner with twenty strangers can also be a way for students to learn about various activities and organizations on campus, the research or extracurricular interests of faculty members, or what it was like to attend the university last year.

The dinner with twelve strangers can also be a way for students to learn about various activities and organizations on campus, the research or extracurricular interests of faculty members, or what it was like to attend the university last year.

We have probably enough students to fill six dinners. Gold said. She told the like to reach a goal of 14 dinners.

■ Police Beat

Thief continues in Scapes

A French horn and pupil flute were taken in a burglary at the Sol desired Fine Art Center between 9:30 p.m. Jan. 26 and 5:30 p.m. Feb. 5. The horns were worth a total of $2,000.

The package was worth $1,500 was taken from a student’s car parked on the campus. The car was parked in Lot Q in front of Sol desired Fine Art Center, was locked, but a window was cut partially open.

A screen on a north window of the Student Activities Office was broken between 8 a.m. Jan. 31 and 8 a.m. Feb. 6.

A package, containing glasses and sunglasses, was taken from an attic in Wake Chapel between 11 a.m. Jan. 31 and 8 a.m. Feb. 6.

A screen on a north window of the Student Activities Office was broken between 8 a.m. Jan. 31 and 8 a.m. Feb. 6.

A French horn and pupil flute were taken in a burglary at the Sol desired Fine Art Center between 9:30 p.m. Jan. 26 and 5:30 p.m. Feb. 5. The horns were worth a total of $2,000.

A package was worth $1,500 was taken from a student’s car parked on the campus. The car was parked in Lot Q in front of Sol desired Fine Art Center, was locked, but a window was cut partially open.

A screen on a north window of the Student Activities Office was broken between 8 a.m. Jan. 31 and 8 a.m. Feb. 6.
According to Crabtree, she was forced after the parachute opened, while her hands were occupied with the ropes over her head. The lawsuit was filed in the Mecklenburg Superior Court in Charlotte.

Cockrell did not appear for a court hearing on the incident. Curran said the case involved $350,000 in punitive damages and $355,000 in positive damages.

Judge John Gardner ruled that Cockrell had committed sexual battery against both Crabhers and her fiancée Curran and the lawfully contacted the police to report the incident.

The trustees also passed several resolutions of appreciation and approved faculty appointments at the general meeting. On Thursday, the trustees finish committee meetings. "Vehicles, a member of the Student Life and Intercollegiate Relations Committee, said her committee discussed multicultural affairs. They had a discussion with Barbara Myra. Llanks, the director of multicultural affairs, along with several members of her office staff and students.

"Vehicles said the committee wanted to find out what vehicles offered and what the students wanted. They also had some reservations about these issues to the full Board of Trustees at next meeting. The board's next meeting will be in April, where it will discuss the 1997-98 operating budget.

Junior Farrah Moore of the Physical Planning Committee said her committee planned to continue the Think Small's. She said, "I've learned it's difficult to do it. Not that I don't do it. Not that I don't do it. But I think it's really necessary for the first semester."

"That semester," he said.

Junior Scott Phelan said that the Academic Committee on developing a forum of the university's social and academic climate. He also mentioned a suggestion for a "blue table" which would allow students to write comments about preferences. The table would be placed in an area where students could find the community before registering for classes. Several other students had similar programs.

The Campus Life Committee updated the legislature on the plans to have a time to take students to football games.

The Judicial Committee updated the legislature on their work in figuring out how to deal with a show-bus code violations committed with computers. Co-chairs of Ryan Odell also set a deadline for academic regulations.

"You should not be doing it at the end of the semester," he said.

The Student Relations Committee announced that date for the open forum has been changed to 11 a.m. Mar. 18. The forum will be in a hall-style meeting with an audience.

The Appropriation and Budget Committee talked about the appropriation for the campus swim team and discussed the feasibility of a campus swimming center.

"You can't do this without a lot of people. You can't do this without a lot of people. But I think it's really necessary for the first semester."

"That semester," he said.

Junior Scott Phelan said that the Academic Committee on developing a forum of the university's social and academic climate. He also mentioned a suggestion for a "blue table" which would allow students to write comments about preferences. The table would be placed in an area where students could find the community before registering for classes. Several other students had similar programs.

The Campus Life Committee updated the legislature on the plans to have a time to take students to football games.

The Judicial Committee updated the legislature on their work in figuring out how to deal with a show-bus code violations committed with computers. Co-chairs of Ryan Odell also set a deadline for academic regulations.

"You should not be doing it at the end of the semester," he said.

The Student Relations Committee announced that date for the open forum has been changed to 11 a.m. Mar. 18. The forum will be in a hall-style meeting with an audience.

The Appropriation and Budget Committee talked about the appropriation for the campus swim team and discussed the feasibility of a campus swimming center.

"You can't do this without a lot of people. You can't do this without a lot of people. But I think it's really necessary for the first semester."

"That semester," he said.

Junior Scott Phelan said that the Academic Committee on developing a forum of the university's social and academic climate. He also mentioned a suggestion for a "blue table" which would allow students to write comments about preferences. The table would be placed in an area where students could find the community before registering for classes. Several other students had similar programs.
Old Gold and Black

Editorial

ABC disapproved journalistic ethics

This Wednesday evening the television show ABC News Tonight hosted by Sam Donaldson and Cokie Roberts was broadcast. The show is an evening news program that focuses on international and national news stories.

In the show, ABC aired footage of a Food Lion store where employees were found to be using hidden cameras to record their interactions with customers. The footage showed employees handling spoiled produce and using lemon juice to cover the smell. The footage was part of a news investigation that was aired in November 1992.

ABC executives claimed that the footage was obtained legally by the producers who had hired a private investigator to conduct the investigation. The investigators had scheduled appointments with employees and filmed interactions with them.

ABC subsequently fired the investigators and suspended two employees from the show who were responsible for approving the content of the footage. The network also apologized to Food Lion and agreed to pay $5.5 million in punitive damages to the company.

The issue is significant because it raises questions about the ethics of using hidden cameras to gather evidence for news stories. ABC executives argued that the use of hidden cameras is a common practice in journalism, but critics have argued that it undermines the trust between the public and the media.

The case also highlights the broader issue of media accountability and the need for transparent practices in news gathering. The public is increasingly aware of the use of隐性 cameras and the need for accountability in journalism.

It is important for media organizations to be transparent about their methods of gathering evidence and to ensure that their practices do not compromise the integrity of their work. ABC's actions in this case raise questions about its commitment to journalistic ethics and its responsibility to its audience.
Valentine’s Day causes more headaches than heads -- by ANDY FERGUSON

It's that time of year again, the time when all the boys and girls are thinking about love and romance. Valentine's Day is a day to express your love to the people you care about, but it can also be a source of stress and frustration. Here are some tips for dealing with Valentine's Day:

1. Gift Giving: If you are shopping for a gift, you might consider giving flowers, chocolates, or a heartfelt card. But if you are not shopping for a gift, you have that constant temptation to buy something for yourself. So, before you spend your money on a gift, ask yourself if it is truly something you need or if you are just buying it because it is expected of you.

2. Self-Love: Valentine's Day is also a great opportunity to show yourself some love. Take some time to do something you enjoy, such as reading a book, taking a bath, or going for a walk. Remember, you can't love others if you don't love yourself.

3. Relationships: If you are in a relationship, take some time to appreciate your partner. Write them a love letter, make them a special dinner, or do something thoughtful and unexpected for them.

4. Friendship: Don't forget about your friends. They are often the people who are closest to you and can provide the most support and comfort. Send them a card or call them up to say hello.

5. Health: Valentine's Day is also a great opportunity to take care of your physical health. Exercise, eat a healthy diet, and get enough sleep.

In conclusion, Valentine's Day can be a stressful and challenging time, but it can also be a time of joy and love. Just remember to take care of yourself, and you will be sure to have a happy Valentine's Day.
Great Weekend Escapes.

$139 Florida/Orlando Honeymoons
Cocoa Beach Honeymoons $169
springbreaktravel.com
1-800-678-6386

GOV'T FORECLOSED homes from $175
Peachtree, Chatam, Jonesboro, BMWW, Concerts, Auto Sales,
397-8588. Must Mention
Tax, Reg's, PDE's, Your Name, Temporary Toll Free 1-800-218-9000
Ext. A-8467 for current listings.

Deferring Loans
No Credit Charge
Can earn $500 to $1000 weekly
Call Today (919) 768-7055

LEARN TO SKIY/ I Learn to Snowboard
(919) 496-2224

EXCEPTIONAL SUMMER OPPORTUNITIES
- Co-op Wayne, NC, a local C/C Sports-oriented. Contact for: Specials for all Land/Water Sports including Tennis, Canoeing, Climbing Routes, Mountain Biking, Rockclimbing, Roller Hockey, Sailing! Winter/Spring, Fall, Summer, Year Round. Contact A & C, Denver, Radio, Video. On Campus Interviews. Please call 1-800-737-0954 or 919-366-8978 and leave your name, phone number, and mailing address.

Excellent summer employment at ACA accredited camp for girls. Free training! At least 18 years-old. Room, board, and salary included. Positions for maintenance, Activities Director, swimming, canoeing, sailing, arts and crafts, cooking, front desk and more! Call Nancy Simons-Cotler (617) 352-6604 or Fax to 1-617-789-4582 for Continental Valley Girl Scout Council, PO Box 352, Reading, MA 02168.

Kaplan Test Prep is looking for a few good women (or men) to work as Student Advisors. Close to campus, great pay, and a fun working atmosphere! Call Amy Wagner at 709-999-0420 or for more information.

 Hundreds of Students are earning Pay Spring Break Trips & More! Call (919) 496-2224 or Fax to (919) 496-2224 to book.生產 Coupon Code: 739920. (Girls) 800-678-6386. (Boys) 800-325-3396.

Expires 4/20/97 summer! Summer Break Bahamas Party Cruises: 6 Days $279! Includes All Meals, Parties!

A.C.C. TIX WANTED
ALL LOCATIONS
TOP P/F 100% PAYOUT
919-498-9098

Call Northpoint for WFU delivery

---

Great Weekend Escapes for as low as $109
From MasterCard and United Airlines.

Take Off for The Weekend With United Airlines And Return The Following Monday Or Tuesday To Get Substantial Savings When You Use Your MasterCard® Card.
Deacons fend off Clemson
By MEREDITH KRAUSE

The Deacons were not prepared for a repeat of last year's fateful 83-76 loss to the Clemson Tigers. This year's contest was quite a different story, with Deacons dominating from the first half to the final buzzer. The final score was 73-64 in favor of Wake Forest.

The Deacons started strong, scoring the first 10 points of the game, and the Tigers never fully recovered. Deacons utilized their strong defense to limit the Tigers' scoring opportunities, while also capitalizing on their own opportunities. The Deacons managed to hold the Tigers to just 29.2% shooting from the field, while they shot 53.6% themselves.

Senior Tim Duncan had a standout performance, recording 17 points and 10 rebounds in the game. Junior forward Tyler Rutland also contributed 16 points and 9 rebounds. Guard Kevin Rowley added 14 points and 6 assists, showcasing Wake Forest's depth.

The game was decided early on when the Deacons managed to build a substantial lead and never looked back. The Deacons proved to be a formidable opponent, and the Tigers were unable to make a comeback. The home crowd was boisterous throughout the game, filling the Petersen Center with energy and excitement.

The victory improves the Deacons' record to 12-5, and they look to continue their run of success. The Deacons face their next challenge on the road against Georgia Tech, and fans are excited to see how they perform in their next game.
DEACON NOTES

Duncan wins ESPY award

Syracuse All-America center Tim Duncan won ESPY's Highest honor for a college basketball player last week, an honor that the media had predicted he would win. Duncan, who played for the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, was honored by the legendary Dick Vitale.

The honor was presented to him by the legendary Dick Vitale. Duncan, who played for the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, was honored by the legendary Dick Vitale.

Duncan passes block record

Syracuse Tim Duncan blocked three shots in Sunday's game against UMass, surpassing NCAA record-book holder Alonzo Mourning of Georgetown in the category. Duncan now has 455 blocks compared to Mourning's 455. Syracuse's big man Adonal Foyle also passed the record.

Tim Duncan passed block record

Duncan's big block against UMass, surpassed the record.

Will the real Demon Deacons please stand up?

Dave Odom and his coaching staff have been plagued by questions of consistency. During the season, the team has shown flashes of brilliance, but after that, they've been disappointing. A team that's actually the same players, but they've played differently.

Runners putting it in high gear for ACC Championships

The ACC Indoor Championships will feature some of the top runners in the country. The race is set for Saturday, February 21st, at 1:30 p.m. against East Tennessee State. Saturday's race will be a great opportunity for the Deacons to showcase their talent.

ACC Tournament Action & NCAA March Madness

Headquarters!

FROM THE DIAMONDBACK GRILL®

DINNER SPECIALS

CALL

100" WIDE SCREEN T.V.

BURGERS • NACHOS • OYSTERS • SANDWICHES • WIDE VARIETY COLD BOTTLE & DRAFT BEER

Tuesday - Saturday 6 p.m. - midnight

Deadline & Late Night!!!

Teambreaker: Total points scored in the N.C. State At

THE DIAMONDBACK GRILL® **

Since 1988
Women's hoops losing streak reaches nine with 81-58 loss to Duke

Scoreboard

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Men's Basketball</th>
<th>ACC Standings</th>
<th>Conf. Overall</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>ACC Statistics</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Individual Scoring</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tim Duncan, WFU</td>
<td>13.8</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Antawn Jamison, UNC</td>
<td></td>
<td>19.6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Keith Booth, Md.</td>
<td>19.4</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Matt Harpring, GT</td>
<td>19.0</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>James Collins, FSU</td>
<td>16.1</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Greg Buckner, Clem.</td>
<td>16.5</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Corey Louis, FSU</td>
<td>16.1</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Blocks</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tim Duncan, WFU</td>
<td>3.6</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Eddie Blums, GT</td>
<td>2.4</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Matt Harrington, GT</td>
<td>2.1</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Serge Zwikker, UNC</td>
<td></td>
<td>1.9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Women's Basketball</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ACC Standings</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Conf. Overall</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

SUMMER SESSIONS AT UNCW

Summer Sessions

Session I, May 27-June 27
Interession, June 16-July 17
Session II, July 1-August 1

The Facts Speak for Themselves

- 75% of students at four-year colleges report they consume five or less alcoholic drinks per week.

Source: The CORE Survey of over 50,000 students nationwide. Sponsored by Golden Key Honor Society & Health Education Office.

---

SPORTS

By Rene Kosyn

ACC/Big East Sports Service

Three key things stood out to Head Coach Karen Freeman in Stanford's win over Wake Forest.

1. Senior Heidi Coleman came out strong.
2. Timberlake and Douglas hit the first 30 seconds of the game, sinking a basket and a three.
3. Coleman was named ACC Player of the Week for her performance.

Freshman Alijah Mays led the Demon Deacons with 15 points in the second half alone. Goestenkors still admitted that the Demon Deacons were not able to pull the game out.

Goestenkors said, "This was the best effort offensively and defensively of the year for our team.

In light of Duke's excellent game, Freeman said that her team's performance was a testament to their dedication and hard work.

The Demon Deacons are now looking to stop the losing streak that has been the team's main focus throughout the season.

They are at the bottom of the ACC with a 2-15 record, only above Florida State in the standings.

Weekly Schedule

Friday, May 27

Baseball at The Citadel, 7 p.m.

Saturday, May 28

Baseball vs. East Tennessee State, 3 p.m.

Monday, May 30

Women's Basketball at Georgia Tech, 2 p.m.

Wednesday, June 1

Men's Tennis at Furman, 2 p.m.

Women's Tennis at Clemson, 4 p.m., Joel Coliseum

Women's Basketball at Georgia Tech, 2 p.m.

Baseball vs. Furman (Charleston, S.C.), 1:30 p.m.

Thursday, June 2

Men's Tennis at West Virginia

Women's Tennis at Tennessee

Sunday, June 5

Men's Basketball vs. N.C. State, 4 p.m., Joel Coliseum

Women's Basketball at Georgia Tech, 2 p.m.

Baseball vs. Furman (Charleston, S.C.), 1:30 p.m.

Men's Tennis at Furman, 2 p.m.

Tuesday Baseball vs. Elon, 2:30 p.m., Hooks Stadium

Wednesday Men's Basketball at North Carolina, 9 p.m.

---

The Demon Deacons are now looking to stop the losing streak that has been the team's main focus throughout the season.

They are at the bottom of the ACC with a 2-15 record, only above Florida State in the standings.

This Week

Friday, Baseball at East Tennessee State (Charleston, S.C.), 1:30 p.m.

Saturday

Baseball at The Citadel, 1:30 p.m.

Monday

Women's Basketball at Georgia Tech, 2 p.m.

Wednesday

Men's Basketball at North Carolina, 9 p.m.
Valentine's Day

A celebration of love—or just materialism?

By MEREDITH REIN
Professor of Religion

The day before the big day, most people are out buying gifts for their loved ones. But why? Is it just a day to honor our love relationships? Or is there more to it?

The problem of commercialism

"It's a day to revel in love," says Assistant Professor of Religion Claudia Thomas. "But it's also a great opportunity for the commercial type to make some money."

In this age of instant gratification, it can be hard to find a gift that will last. So why not just buy a card instead? But why not just buy a card instead?

"To me, Valentine's Day is a holiday of no thinking person can appreciate," says Professor of Religion Charles Brown. "We should try to ignore the pressure exerted by the commercial culture to make us feel like we must celebrate by buying gifts."

The theory behind the holiday

Valentine's Day is named after a Roman priest who was executed for his Christian beliefs. According to legend, he fell in love with a young girl who was betrothed to another man. The girl's fiancé was$

---

The text continues with various perspectives on Valentine's Day, discussing its history, cultural significance, and the commercialization of the holiday. It also touches on the personal experiences of the authors and their views on the day's meaning.

---

The text concludes with a question for the reader: "Valentine's Day is a day to celebrate love, but what is the true meaning behind it?"
New Play Festival features student, alumni work

by Christopher Conte

This past weekend, the University Th­ nre presented the first of its two New Play Festivals. This Friday, I must admit I submitted a section of three pieces. "A Nice Day," "Short and Sweet," and "Seven Days in the Life of a Dog." Though I did not see the first three plays, I was given a chance to see the second one, and they were both extremely entertaining. The plays were written by students and given a chance to perform and write. The variety of themes and styles is clearly evident.

"Blue Jeans" by a student has already been performed and revised, it was the second of the three pieces presented. The play is about the process of a student who wants to be a good writer but is stuck in the middle of the process.

The third play was "A Nice Day" by sophomore Heather Chappell. I was very surprised to be coming back to see her again and was very excited. The play is the story of a young girl, who lives with her grandmother, and must have the strength to stand up to the people who try to rob her. The play was well-written and the acting was first-rate.

The first piece that I saw was "Short and Sweet," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how
the audience is always waiting for the play
to be written. The piece was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The last piece I saw was "Seven Days in the Life of a Dog," written by a sophomores. The play is about the, process of writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece
was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The second play was "A Nice Day," writ­ en by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece was well-written and had a lot of heart.

In the end, I felt that all three pieces were teria that I enjoyed. The audience was informed and the acting was first-rate. The play was well-written and the acting was first-rate.

The second piece that I saw was "A Nice Day," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how
the audience is always waiting for the play
to be written. The piece was well-written
and had a lot of heart.

The third piece that I saw was "Blue Jeans," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The fourth piece that I saw was "Seven Days in the Life of a Dog," written by a sophomores. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece
was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The fifth piece that I saw was "A Nice Day," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how
the audience is always waiting for the play
to be written. The piece was well-written
and had a lot of heart.

The sixth piece that I saw was "Blue Jeans," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience
is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The seventh piece that I saw was "Seven Days in the Life of a Dog," written by a sophomores. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece
was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The eighth piece that I saw was "A Nice Day," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how
the audience is always waiting for the play
to be written. The piece was well-written
and had a lot of heart.

The ninth piece that I saw was "Blue Jeans," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience
is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The tenth piece that I saw was "Seven Days in the Life of a Dog," written by a sophomores. The play is about the process of
writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece
was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The eleventh piece that I saw was "A Nice Day," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how
the audience is always waiting for the play
to be written. The piece was well-written
and had a lot of heart.

The twelfth piece that I saw was "Blue Jeans," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience
is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The thirteenth piece that I saw was "Seven Days in the Life of a Dog," written by a sophomores. The play is about the process of
writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece
was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The fourteenth piece that I saw was "A Nice Day," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how
the audience is always waiting for the play
to be written. The piece was well-written
and had a lot of heart.

The fifteenth piece that I saw was "Blue Jeans," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience
is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The sixteenth piece that I saw was "Seven Days in the Life of a Dog," written by a sophomores. The play is about the process of
writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece
was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The seventeenth piece that I saw was "A Nice Day," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how
the audience is always waiting for the play
to be written. The piece was well-written
and had a lot of heart.

The eighteenth piece that I saw was "Blue Jeans," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience
is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The nineteenth piece that I saw was "Seven Days in the Life of a Dog," written by a sophomores. The play is about the process of
writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece
was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The twentieth piece that I saw was "A Nice Day," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how
the audience is always waiting for the play
to be written. The piece was well-written
and had a lot of heart.

The twenty-first piece that I saw was "Blue Jeans," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience
is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The twenty-second piece that I saw was "Seven Days in the Life of a Dog," written by a sophomores. The play is about the process of
writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece
was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The twenty-third piece that I saw was "A Nice Day," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how
the audience is always waiting for the play
to be written. The piece was well-written
and had a lot of heart.

The twenty-fourth piece that I saw was "Blue Jeans," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience
is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The twenty-fifth piece that I saw was "Seven Days in the Life of a Dog," written by a sophomores. The play is about the process of
writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece
was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The twenty-sixth piece that I saw was "A Nice Day," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how
the audience is always waiting for the play
to be written. The piece was well-written
and had a lot of heart.

The twenty-seventh piece that I saw was "Blue Jeans," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience
is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The twenty-eighth piece that I saw was "Seven Days in the Life of a Dog," written by a sophomores. The play is about the process of
writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece
was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The twenty-ninth piece that I saw was "A Nice Day," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how
the audience is always waiting for the play
to be written. The piece was well-written
and had a lot of heart.

The thirty-first piece that I saw was "Blue Jeans," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience
is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The thirty-second piece that I saw was "Seven Days in the Life of a Dog," written by a sophomores. The play is about the process of
writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece
was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The thirty-third piece that I saw was "A Nice Day," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how
the audience is always waiting for the play
to be written. The piece was well-written
and had a lot of heart.

The thirty-fourth piece that I saw was "Blue Jeans," written by a student. The play is about the process of writing a play, and how the audience
is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece was well-written and had a lot of heart.

The thirty-fifth piece that I saw was "Seven Days in the Life of a Dog," written by a sophomores. The play is about the process of
writing a play, and how the audience is always waiting for the play to be written. The piece
was well-written and had a lot of heart.
The synopsis on the back of the book does not sound promising. The phrase "entertainment" brings back to reading the English Patient brings romance back to reading

The English Patient

By DANIELLE DELUVIO

The synopsis on the back of the book does not sound promising. The phrase "entertainment" brings back to reading the English Patient brings romance back to reading.

The English Patient contains many features that have been lacking in contemporary literature for a long time. It has a great story reminiscent of novels and films of the '30s and '40s.

For the movie

The English Patient brings romance back to reading.