Senior Class To Hold Annual Smoker Next Thursday Night

Affair To Be Held At Williams Dining Hall At 8:30 P.M.; Interesting Program Planned.

On Thursday night of this week will take place the annual smoker of the Senior class at Williams Dining Hall at 8:30 P.M. This smoker will mark the beginning of the first very busy day for the seniors since after graduation.

The president of the senior class, Mr. Robert H. Polk, has invited a very select list of guests for the smoker. The program includes speeches by three of the seniors, as well as several musical numbers, including several songs by the Wake Forest quartet of the class of 1929. There will also be a dance between the periods of the program.

W. F. Gleek Club In Louisburg Makes Big With Girls

Glee Club Played Its Most Appreciated Audience on Monday Night.

On Monday evening the W. F. Gleek Club entertained a large audience at the Louisburg auditorium. A steady demand being made for the Gleek Club's performance, the audience did not fail to appreciatively applaud the Glee Club at the conclusion of its program.

PARDON OUR MAIDENLY RETICENCE, BUT—

In choosing a cigarette, we doubt that you will allow yourself to get all hot and bothered. Indubitably you know what mellow mildness you want in a smoke. Suffice it for us to say we think Camel has just that. Filter Camel’s cool fragrance through your smoke-channel, and see how it clicks. After all, nothing takes the place of pleasure.
