...is almost a matter of course for a security, declared Harold D. Coo...
UNKLEARNED SOURCES... THESE SOURCES are all around us; they are the basics of our lives. They are the things that we use every day, and they are the things that we take for granted. We often forget how important these sources are, and we often overlook the fact that they are the foundations of our society. We must remember that these sources are what make our world go round, and we must always be grateful for them.}

UNKNOWABLE SOURCES... THESE SOURCES are unknown to us; they are the mysteries of our lives. They are the things that we cannot explain, and they are the things that we cannot understand. We often wonder about these sources, and we often try to find answers to our questions. We must remember that these sources are what make our world mysterious, and we must always be curious about them. We must always be open to new ideas, and we must always be open to new possibilities. We must always be open to new sources.
Kitchin’s Knee Injury Prevents Today Action

Jim Kitchin reports he is expected to return to action against State today. The Wake Forest fullback has been out with a knee injury since the game against Florida last week. The return of Kitchin will give the Deacons an extra offensive weapon against the State defense.

COACH ROBINSON STATES TIME OF DEBUTING MEET

Coach Robinson has announced that the first game of the season will be played on September 15th. The game will be against the St. Louis Rams, and will be played at the University of North Carolina. The Deacons have been invited to play in the game as a charity event.

SOUTHWINDS FOR WAKE FOREST

It is expected that Wake Forest will travel to the south for their first two games of the season. The team is expected to depart on September 10th and arrive in the south the next day. The first game against St. Louis will be held on September 15th, and the second game against Carolina will be held on September 22nd.

PAGE CAMPUS LIFE IS GLOCKENSPIEL:...Any student who has never been successfully vaccinated against smallpox must make such preparations now as to be ready when the time comes. As to the inoculation itself, the Committee on Health is now making arrangements for the holding of the various inoculations in the infirmary.

Graduates Enter Harvard

Two Wake Forest College men will enroll this fall in the Harvard Law School. These are D. B. Myers, who has been awarded a scholarship, and Chesterfield "Coon" Trafton, a member of the class of 1916. The Associated Press has reported that B. A. Perry of Louisburg, who was graduated in 1910, has been appointed professor of the medical school. They were treated on pages former-.
