Legislature Passes Motion To Probe OGB Charges

By SYDNEY BENNETT

A resolution establishing an investigating committee of six Old Gold and Black representatives was unanimously approved by the Legislature meeting Wednesday night.

A faciliating committee of two members of each campus paper represented in the Legislature, will in cooperation with the resolution, put into operation an investigating committee of six Old Gold and Black representatives.

The resolution, presented by Dr. William S. B. Tipton, president of the college, was adopted by the student body and by the legislative association.

The committee will meet with the president at any time and will report its findings to the legislature and the student body.

Columnist Buchwald Thrives On Things Not Going Right

By SYDNEY BENNETT

The times were made for Art Buchwald - a bit of a freakishly genial man who "thinks on things" and "looks at things." He makes a habit of turning up at exactly the right moment with exactly the right words to say... and his columns... well, they work much the way his head does: "to do a bit of nothing with a bit of something." People like to have him around... because he works much the way they do.

Fame and fortune elude each bet h token, however, and he was later made member of the year.

He is alert in Florida, for his head is never empty. His body is thin, but he has a lot of stomach. He is a walking talk on a call for a room in most newspapers, most month's worth issues... and even the New York Times.

He always styles himself as a "Little man," but he has a way of handling himself that is quite distinctive. He is a bit of a "wolff" when he talks, but he has a certain way of looking at things that is quite distinctive. He is a bit of a "wolff" when he talks, but he has a certain way of looking at things that is quite distinctive.

We have a fairly good oppor tunity to say that Mr. Buchwald's mind is as large as his head, but it is much better than the system of others.

His most recent essay was a bit of a "wolff" when he talked, but he has a certain way of looking at things that is quite distinctive.

Alumni Vent Wishes For President

Our daily activities in the college are centered around the President, who is our guide and leader. The President is the head of the college and is responsible for the welfare of all students.

The presidency is a hard job, and a great deal is required if he is to succeed. What qualities should a president have? These were the questions that were posed to the alumni during the last Homecoming, when the alumni house was dedicated.

The new president should be a man of character, a man who can be trusted. He should be a man of integrity, a man who will not be led astray by his own desires.

If Quietness Is Sincere, Then Quietness Will Last

We've spent a week looking for troubles that might come up tomorrow. The Baptist gathering would be a good place to start. Our Baptist gathering would be one of harmony and goodwill. Nobody needs your defense. We thought we were in our province.

The campus was not typically pro-socialist. We have to be quiet. We have to be silent. We have to be thoughtful. The quiet dignity of a calm campus reflects the quiet dignity of the choice or otherwise, has been the center of campus controversy. There was the Committee of 21, a group of students, faculty, and administration important to the College, and Convocation. The challenge chairmen have not been among the servicemen in Chapel Hill. The quiet is almost never quiet. It will always be quiet.

The Power Of The Pen

Well, we've done it again. Students have taken some notes from what we thought were in our province. This time it's not our province. This time it's the province of the whole world. This time we thought we ought to fight for the whole world.

From now on we shall apply to take a policy of quiet indifference. Never again will we consider the possibility of the student body. If we have to be quiet, we have to be quiet. We have to be silent. We have to be thoughtful. The quiet dignity of a calm campus reflects the quiet dignity of the choice or otherwise, has been the center of campus controversy. There was the Committee of 21, a group of students, faculty, and administration important to the College, and Convocation. The challenge chairmen have not been among the servicemen in Chapel Hill. DEACS... who are GREEKS

Squires and Knights

The first look at a different way of thinking: stove or refrigerator? may seem a bit confusing at first. Yet the reality is that they are both designed to serve the same purpose — to keep food cold. The key is understanding the differences between the two types.

The refrigerator is a large appliance that typically sits against a wall in the kitchen. It has a large, flat top surface and a door that opens at the base. The refrigerator is designed to keep food cold, and it also contains a freezer section for freezing food.

The stove, on the other hand, is a smaller appliance that typically sits on the kitchen counter. It has a flat top surface and one or more burners for cooking food. The stove is designed to cook food, and it is usually used in conjunction with other kitchen appliances such as a refrigerator or microwave.

Both the refrigerator and the stove are essential components of a fully equipped kitchen. They serve different purposes, but they work together to create a functional and efficient cooking space.

The refrigerator keeps food cold, while the stove cooks it. By using both of these appliances, you can prepare a variety of delicious meals in your own home. So the next time you're in the kitchen, take a moment to appreciate the importance of both the refrigerator and the stove in your cooking routine.

Baptists Return To A Changed Wake Forest

Change In College Is Great Since Last W-S Convention

By HENRY BOATIC, Jr.

Two years ago, after months of acrimonious debate and with a sense of heightened anxiety, Baptists furtively agreed to abandon the Baptist State Convention as the highest court of their church. Many Baptists still remember with a shudder the tense months that followed as the Baptist Tradition and the Baptist State Convention were separated.

But problems do not always have only one outcome. The Baptist State Convention has had two years to adjust to the loss of its Baptist jurisdiction. Now, in 1964, the Baptist State Convention is in the process of an enthusiastic merger with Wake Forest College. The Baptist State Convention and Wake Forest College have been occupied in 1961. In 1963 the Baptist State Convention and the College have been organized to offer a financial aid to the Baptist State Convention and Wake Forest College. Baker Stars As Defense Halts Late Tiger Rally

By BILL TENNISON

Coach Bill Tate's club will go 2-0 in the 1966-67 season with a hard-fought 21-7 victory over Memphis State at Memorial Gymnasium Saturday afternoon.

The Deacons did it by a defense that halted the Tiger rally in the last two minutes of the game and by a balanced offense that outscored Memphis State 14-0 in the second half.

The Deacons scored on 12 pass receptions, four for touchdowns, and six scoring runs.

The Deacons will open its home schedule at 3 p.m. Saturday against Virginia- Tech.

The Deacons had better hang in there all afternoon against the Floridaland contest.

As usual, the coaches of these teams were not sure of the starting lineup for the second half of the game.

The Deacons will have to hang in there all afternoon against the Florida game.

Wake Beats Pfeiffer, 2-0

In Soccer

The Wake Forest Soccer Owls completed their second straight season of success by winning their first two games of the campaign, overing Furman Wednesday and winning two goals to one over Pfeiffer Thursday.

The Owls started strong against the Panthers, but continued their winning streak by dominating the game and scoring two goals in the second half to win 2-1.

Wake's offense was led by Mohammad Zia, who scored both goals for the Owls.

Wake's defense held Pfeiffer to just one goal, while the Owls' offense scored two goals.

Wake's goalkeeper, John Anderson, made several key saves to keep Pfeiffer's offense at bay.

The Owls are now 2-0 on the season and look to continue their winning streak in their next game against Furman.
