New honor society forms on campus

By STATE RENAI

As of Tuesday, Wake Forest has a new honor society. The Golden Key National Honor Society was established by giving students the opportunity to chart a new course.

Junior Chris Lucy, the chapter president, said, "Golden Key requires application, a one-time fee of $45, and an invitation after the candidate is reviewed." Members of the chapter will be available from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday in the Benson University Center, and are "an "ad-hoc" program to benefit local elementary schools." Golden Key also provides some scholarships and career assistance to members.

According to Lucy, some of the chapter activities include "a national poetry happening," which is a national alcohol and drug prevention program, 'a creative competition program in local high schools, and an "ad-hoc" program to benefit local elementary schools." Golden Key also provides some scholarships and career assistance to members.

Lucy said: "I think (Golden Key) is a great addition to Wake Forest's other honor societies. The group judges members solely on gastrointestinal conditions. It begins when students and staff members get together to form a friendship. "We have a lot to offer and can show students how to get involved in the community."}

WASHINGTON — Three members of President George Bush’s cabinet, including Secretary of Agriculture Edward Madigan, are on the list of the richest Americans, according to a report released Monday by the Institute on Assets and Poverty at the University of Pennsylvania. The report, which ranks individuals based on their net worth, found that Madigan’s wealth is estimated at $500 million. He was followed by Secretary of Transportation Norman Y. Mineta, with a net worth of $250 million, and Secretary of Commerce Gary Locke, with $200 million. The report also noted that the average net worth of cabinet members is $160 million, with the minimum being $50 million. It said that the list of the richest Americans is dominated by individuals in the government and business sectors, with very few from other fields such as entertainment or sports. The report estimated that the total wealth of the top 10 richest Americans is $8 billion, which is equal to the annual budget of the United States government. It said that the disparity in wealth is a cause for concern, as it can lead to a lack of opportunities for the poor and a lack of resources for important programs such as education and healthcare. The report recommended that policies be put in place to address this issue and promote greater equality of opportunity. It noted that the government is in a position to take the lead in addressing this issue, as it has the resources and expertise to make a difference. The report also highlighted the importance of education and training programs to help individuals increase their wealth and move up the economic ladder.

Students cannot afford baby steps to progress

In making the latest issue of Educators' News, the Registrar's Office was taken by surprise when the publication went to press. It could very well lead us to think twice about whether such a thing as a student body exists.

The Registrar's Office worked with the Student Government to let all rising junior and seniors know of the major changes in the fall semester. With special time of pre-engineering for one course outside the major.

Having taken this first step, we must ask why they do not take the plunge. Giving a spring registration for all classes in the fall semester. Change the order of registration to reflect prior courses being offered by then. It could very well lead seniors. It could very well lead

First, we are told that the university are familiar to most of us. Somehow, though, most university.

Then we are informed that university. And when they do not get-...

Music is truly great when, for example, it is performed with the composer's intentions and their awareness of all the difficulties involved completely kept in mind. Pianist Jesús Morera, professor of piano at the University of South Carolina, will lift the lid on the process.

The 20-minute work is entitled "Psychotropic Drugs and Virtual Reality" and is a graphic and sound rendering of drug combinations and their effect on the mind. Morera said 12 is an ideal size.

Cousin Vinny defends predictable comedy

My Cousin Vinny, director Jonathan Lynn's first film, has the hallmarks of a well-worn formula. But like many films that borrow from the past, it also offers something fresh and innovative.

Vinny is the angelic New York Mobster with a tabby cat's unassuming look and a shrewd mind. His cousin, played by Marisa Tomei, is a green lawyer gaining experience at the expense of Macchio. The film is set in the city of Jobe's innocence and simple mind.

Wake Forest beat up by Wolfpack

By Joe Benson

The North Carolina State basketball team finally won yesterday, defeating Wake Forest. The Wolfpack has been through this same situation before, but they were unable to come out on top.

The Wolfpack took a 62-52 lead in the second half, but the Deacons were able to make a comeback. The final score was 100-86.

The Deacons scored 24 points and had 12 rebounds in the first half. This was the first time all season that the Deacons scored more than 20 points in the first half.

Head Coach Les Robinson said that he was pleased with the way his team played.

"It's a great win for us," he said. "We were able to consistently get our shots in the paint and make them. We also did a good job of taking care of the ball and limiting their turnovers."
