Approximately one hundred and twenty-five high school students, representing five different schools in the "City of Lakes," competed in the annual State Classic Track and Field Meet. The contest marked the culmination of a most successful season held for the North Carolina High School Track and Field Association. The number of contestants and the caliber of the competition and performances were astronomical. The field was filled with the best talents of the state, and the climax of the season was the final competition sponsored by the Athletic Conference of High Schools.

The final day of the season was held at 3:00 p.m. Approximately one hundred and seventy students gathered to witness the final competition. At that time, the sun was setting, and the high school students were setting up the field for the final competition of the season.

As the competitors arrived, they were greeted with the traditional welcome song by the school band. The excitement was palpable as the students prepared for the final competition of the season. The air was thick with anticipation as the students waited for the first event to begin.

The first event of the day was the boys' 100-yard dash. The competitors lined up at the starting line, and the gun was fired to start the race. The contestants sprinted down the track, their legs pumping in unison. The first competitor crossed the finish line, and the crowd erupted in cheers. The excitement continued as the next competitors took their turn at the starting line.

The next event was the girls' 100-yard dash. The competitors were lined up at the starting line, and the gun was fired. The contestants sprinted down the track, their legs pumping in unison. The first competitor crossed the finish line, and the crowd erupted in cheers.

The final event of the day was the girls' 4x100 relay. The competitors were lined up at the starting line, and the gun was fired. The contestants sprinted down the track, their legs pumping in unison. The first competitor crossed the finish line, and the crowd erupted in cheers.

As the curtain fell on the final day of the season, the North Carolina High School Track and Field Association reflected on a most successful season. The number of contestants and the caliber of the competition and performances were astronomical. The field was filled with the best talents of the state, and the climax of the season was the final competition sponsored by the Athletic Conference of High Schools.

The final day of the season was held at 3:00 p.m. Approximately one hundred and seventy students gathered to witness the final competition. At that time, the sun was setting, and the high school students were setting up the field for the final competition of the season.

As the competitors arrived, they were greeted with the traditional welcome song by the school band. The excitement was palpable as the students prepared for the final competition of the season. The air was thick with anticipation as the students waited for the first event to begin.

The first event of the day was the boys' 100-yard dash. The competitors lined up at the starting line, and the gun was fired to start the race. The contestants sprinted down the track, their legs pumping in unison. The first competitor crossed the finish line, and the crowd erupted in cheers. The excitement continued as the next competitors took their turn at the starting line.

The next event was the girls' 100-yard dash. The competitors lined up at the starting line, and the gun was fired. The contestants sprinted down the track, their legs pumping in unison. The first competitor crossed the finish line, and the crowd erupted in cheers.

The final event of the day was the girls' 4x100 relay. The competitors lined up at the starting line, and the gun was fired. The contestants sprinted down the track, their legs pumping in unison. The first competitor crossed the finish line, and the crowd erupted in cheers.

As the curtain fell on the final day of the season, the North Carolina High School Track and Field Association reflected on a most successful season. The number of contestants and the caliber of the competition and performances were astronomical. The field was filled with the best talents of the state, and the climax of the season was the final competition sponsored by the Athletic Conference of High Schools.
Regional Meeting of B.Y.P.P.C. at Stanford

Candidates For All Campus Offices: Balloted Today

The official of Butler University recently paused a minute to reflect that the fires of enthusiasm were being stoked with a steady and growing sense of purpose by the students of this institution. The student body of Butler University is preparing for a year of activity and growth.

The student government has been active in organizing various clubs and societies, and the student body is eagerly awaiting the start of the academic year. The students are looking forward to a year of learning, growth, and camaraderie.

The student government is working diligently to ensure that the needs of the student body are met. They are committed to making the year a success for all students.

The student body is excited about the upcoming year and is ready to engage in all the activities that will make this year special. With the support of the student government, the students of Butler University are poised for a year of success.

The students are looking forward to the start of the academic year and are ready to participate in all that this year has to offer. With the support of the student government, the students of Butler University are ready to make this year their best year yet.
Self-Discovered Truth: Is Of Greatest Value

Dr. Raby Preaches Sermon on 14th Chapter of John Sunday Morning at Capitol Church

"Self-discovered and self-appropriated gifts are the most real and genuine values," said Dr. Paul Raby, pastor of the First Church last Sunday morning in a sermon based on the text, "He that hath two breasts hath three eyes."

For the deacons. Holt, Deacon of the Marionettes, explained that the motions of the Marionettes were managed. Hundreds of small strings, connected in different parts, were attached to the Marionettes, offering the impossible. The second debate will be open to the deacons. Holt, Deacon of the Marionettes, who stood above the small stage and directed the Marionettes in their movements. The stage scenery and characters, consisting of the individual scenes, were changed with every act. Light effects and appropriate music, according to the names of the Marionettes, were established to mark the program very fittingly and interestingly.

Varisty Losses With League Teams

(Continued from page 1)

With a man on second and the side out with no man. Williams and Horner will be the winners. Williams will start the game. The following will be the starters in the second game in the remaining matches:

Grooms, with three hits and no out in five trips to the plate, and would have three for the deacons. Holt, Deacon of the Marionettes, who stood above the small stage and directed the Marionettes in their movements. The stage scenery and characters, consisting of the individual scenes, were changed with every act. Light effects and appropriate music, according to the names of the Marionettes, were established to mark the program very fittingly and interestingly.

The Bank of Wake Forest WAKE FOREST, N. C.

Capital Stock...$20,000.00
Surplus...$10,000.00

The Bank of Service to Wake Forest and President

E. H. ROYALL, President

Besides a Large and Complete Stock of Athletic Equipment, we are now stocking RADIO and RADIO SUPPLIES

ATHLETIC SUPPLY CO.

206 S. Salisbury St.
RALEIGH, N. C.

Capital Printing Company
Printers, Binders, Designers

SPECIALISTS in College and School Catalog, Magazine and Newspaper Printing

Phone 1861
RALEIGH, N. C.

Patronize our new store next to the Postoffice.—We meet the students' needs.
We go to E.E. PESCUUD
For
BOOKS AND STATIONERY
12 W. R相符 St., Richmond, Va.
"Come to THE VOUGE FIRST"
RALEIGH, N.C.

THE SOPHISTI CATED
THIRD

Batter Up
by "Bd"
Walters' "visitors"! You are attended—by- the largest Thorical spread ever entertained here. Our college men, too, each one a year or so, are always glad while they are here.

INFORMATION CONTEST in the history of school
...

Young McEntire, a senior Hill High School, has organized for more events. The Hill High other student.

The Gift Shop of Raleigh

We Clothoe and Shoe You—SAMUEL'S
THE STORE FOR TIPPLES
PHONE 1583
WAKE FOREST, N. C.

We also re-named the old store No. 2 on Duke Street and have as our new store WAKE FOREST, N. C.

KLINE & LARAUS CO.

The Citizens Bank
WAKE FOREST, N. C.

ORGANIZED, EQUIPPED, AND CONDUCTED FOR SERVICE

GREAT SHOE SALE
Train load of shoes will be sold at Greatly Reduced Prices. Sale opened this morning at 9:00 o'clock. Come Saturday and save on your Easter footwear.

KLINE & LARAUS CO.

The Art of Mounuling Jewels
A beautiful design, worldwide pieces of jewelry reflects with proper manner the value of its owner. The present article reveals the fact that each stone is measured, and all the stones are of the same size, as follows are available:

14 carats, $20 to $30
18 carats, $30 to $50
20 carats, $50 to $100
24 carats, $100 to $500

14 carats, $20 to $30
18 carats, $30 to $50
20 carats, $50 to $100
24 carats, $100 to $500

The Gift Shop of Raleigh

JAMES E. THIEM OFFICE SUPPLIES AND STATIONERY
Filing Cabinets and Loose Leaf Devices
WATERFORD PAPER AND HALL
FOUNTAIN PENS
PHONE 135
Kodak and Supplies
Raleigh, N.C.

THE RALEIGH FRUIT STORE
Tobaccos : Cigars : Soft Drinks
AND HOT DOGS
215 South Wilkinson St., Raleigh, N.C.