Some Changes in Location of Frat Houses Made This Fall

With the opening of the semester, some of the fraternity houses, for which this year is the last year in the homes of Wake Forest College men, has moved into homes for the first time. This has required some readjustment in the fraternity schedule of the new students, and the matter has been discussed with the fraternity house representatives. The new houses have been chosen for their location near the center of the campus, and are designed to provide adequate living quarters for the men. The houses are located on the north side of the campus, and are arranged in a semi-circle around a central court. The houses are equipped with all modern conveniences, and are designed to provide adequate living quarters for the men. On Wednesday morning, the faculty and students of Wake Forest College will be observing a day of reflection and remembrance. This day, referred to as W. H. A. H. Day, is named after the founder of the college, William Henry Ashley.

Throughout the day, various activities and events will be held to honor the memory of William Henry Ashley. The day will begin with a brief ceremony in the chapel, followed by a moment of silence to remember those who have come before us.

In addition to the ceremony, there will be a series of lectures and discussions throughout the day. These events will focus on the legacy of William Henry Ashley and his contributions to the college and the community.

The day will conclude with a special assembly in the gymnasium, where the faculty and students will come together to reflect on the impact of William Henry Ashley on the college and the community.

The purpose of W. H. A. H. Day is to honor the memory of William Henry Ashley and to remind us of the importance of his legacy. It is a day to remember the past, but also to look forward to the future, as we strive to continue the work that he began.

For more information about W. H. A. H. Day, please contact the administration of Wake Forest College.

Hardcast Schedule Ever Encountered

By Deacon Benson

The football schedule of the Deacon Football Club in the Nineteen-Twenty season is the hardest ever encountered by a team of its kind in the United States. The program is spread over a period of more than a year, and contains games with college teams of high repute.

The object of the program is to afford the players of the football team a thorough and complete training for the game, and to provide a series of games which will enable them to compete with the strongest teams in the country.

The schedule is divided into two parts, the first part being devoted to the training of the players, and the second part to the actual playing of the games. The training is provided by a series of exhibitions and practices, which are held twice a week, and are designed to develop the players' physical endurance and to improve their skill in the game.

The actual playing of the games is provided by a series of contests with college teams of high repute. The Deacon team will play games against the strongest teams in the country, and will be invited to take part in the annual football meeting of the Southern Conference, which is held in the city of New York.

The schedule is as follows:

1. September 23: Game at Home.
2. October 27: Game at Home.
3. November 10: Game at Home.
4. December 1: Game at Home.
5. January 2: Game at Home.
6. February 6: Game at Home.
7. March 10: Game at Home.
8. April 14: Game at Home.
9. May 8: Game at Home.
10. June 12: Game at Home.
12. August 10: Game at Home.

The program is designed to give the players a thorough and complete training for the game, and to provide a series of games which will enable them to compete with the strongest teams in the country.

Extra Large Crowd to Witness Opening Battle of the Season

By Deacon Benson

The football match will be played on the Athletic Field, and will be witnessed by a large and enthusiastic crowd. The players will wear uniforms consisting of white jerseys with blue and white stripes, and blue trousers with a white stripe. The colors of the opponents will be red and white.

In addition to the players, the game will be witnessed by a large number of spectators, who will assemble on the field to witness the match.

The game is scheduled to begin at 3:00 p.m., and will last for two hours. The players will be under the direction of the football coach, who will be assisted by his assistants.

The game will be played under the rules of the Southern Conference, and will be refereed by a representative of the conference.

The schedule is as follows:

1. September 23: Game at Home.
2. October 27: Game at Home.
3. November 10: Game at Home.
4. December 1: Game at Home.

The Mind of Christ

BY REV. H. C. ROBINSON, Editor

Text: "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus; Phil. 2:5"

I soon learned that the text required more than just a superficial study of the Bible. It was not enough to read the words I found it possible, practical, and necessary to study the mind with the words and also the words with the mind of Christ.

We must remember that the Apo tis has no reference to the mind of Christ. In this sense the mind of Christ is not a subject, but a subject of study. If we study the words of the text we shall more readily grasp the thought the Apostle intended to convey.

The object of the Christian reli gion, after all, is to enable us to know Him, to see Him, to follow Him. And, in order to do this, we must know His mind, know the thoughts of His heart.

The words are the mind's business, and the mind's business is the words. And the words are the thoughts of Christ, the thoughts of His spirit, the thoughts of His life.

The words are the mind of Christ, and the mind of Christ is the thought of Christ. And the thought of Christ is the will of Christ.

The thought of Christ is His will. His will is to be done on earth. And His will is to be done in us through our wills.

The will of Christ is the mind of Christ. The mind of Christ is the will of Christ. The will of Christ is the mind of Christ. And the will of Christ is the thought of Christ.

The thought of Christ is His will. His will is to be done on earth. And His will is to be done in us through our wills.

The will of Christ is the mind of Christ. The mind of Christ is the will of Christ. The will of Christ is the mind of Christ. And the will of Christ is the thought of Christ.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; Colossians 3:16.

The words are the mind's business, and the mind's business is the words. And the words are the thoughts of Christ, the thoughts of His spirit, the thoughts of His life.
