National And State Dignitaries Will See Scales' Inauguration

President Humphrey To Be Featured Speaker

By LINDA CANTRILL

Hundred of state and national dignitaries will be here Thursday in Raleigh to attend the inauguration of the scales. According to a press release, the event will begin at 10 a.m. at the State Capitol. The scales will be held in the Rotunda of the Capitol, and the ceremony will begin at 10 a.m.

The main speaker will be United States President Hubert Humphrey, who will address the assembly. The event will be followed by a reception in the Rotunda.

The ceremony will also feature addresses by Governor Dan Perdue, Senator J. Ernest Whiteman, and other dignitaries. The event is open to the public, and admission is free.

The scales, which have been in operation for over 125 years, are a symbol of the state's commitment to justice and fairness. The scales are used to weigh and measure goods, and to ensure that farmers and merchants are treated fairly.

The ceremony will also feature a performance by the state's official band, the Wake Forest University Marching Band. The band will play several songs, including the state song, "The Old North Carolina." The ceremony will conclude with the planting of a tree in honor of the scales' centennial.
University Sets Up Center For Research In Honduras

A coverage center for interdisciplinary studies and research was opened today by Dr. Karl H. Ruth, chairman of the University of North Carolina board of trustees, who was present at the opening of the center. The center is located in the basement of the Administration Building and will be under the direction of Dr. Karl H. Ruth, chairman of the University of North Carolina board of trustees.

Old Gold Named Best In Carolinas

Old Gold was named the best paper in the Carolinas in a recent competition. The Daily Tar Heel of Chapel Hill and the Daily Tar Heel of Raleigh, both published in Raleigh, were the other papers in the competition.

Thief Takes $850 From WT Theater

Although several witnesses were present, the thief was able to escape with the money. The witness who saw the thief was not able to give a description of him. The thief is believed to be a man in his late 20's, wearing a black coat and a hat.

Story On Broughton Comes Under Fire

The story on Broughton has come under fire. Some critics believe that the story is biased and that it does not give a fair representation of Broughton's activities. Others believe that the story is well researched and that it provides valuable information about Broughton.

Challenge Will Invite Mayors Of Big Cities

Miriam H. Mitchell, a retired public official, will be the keynote speaker at the Challenge Luncheon. The luncheon will be held at the Capital Hotel. The theme of the luncheon is "The Future of Our Cities." The luncheon will be attended by mayors of big cities from around the country.

Challenge Luncheon 1973

The Challenge Luncheon, held annually, is a major event in the political calendar of the city. It is attended by mayors from all over the country. The luncheon is sponsored by the National Association of City and University Chapels.

STUDENTS FOR MCCARTHY - at the State University include Brooks Hays, Terry, Dave McNeil, Pete Miller, and Bob Adams.
28 Outstanding Students Tapped By ODK, Tassels

Honor Council Suspend Six Male Students

Six persons were suspended and two severely reprimanded by the Honor Council for violations of Honor Code regulations.

The suspensions were handed down by the Honor Council, which met Thursday night. The remaining six men are being offered for suspension by the Honor Council.

Students were found guilty of acting in violation of the Honor Code after they were charged with violations.

Exams Will Head Broughton Group

Gubernatorial candidates J. Marshall Bridges, Jr., and William B. Viner were announced last week as the candidates for the University's Student Council. They will be elected by the students of Broughton High School.

The candidates will be selected by the University's Student Council, which is made up of representatives from the various student organizations on campus.

The candidates are:

Bridges, 25-year-old senior at UNC, majoring in American Studies.

Viner, 24-year-old junior at UNC, majoring in Economics.

Both candidates are members of Phi Beta Kappa and are standing for re-election to the Student Council.

The candidates will be selected by the Student Council, which is made up of representatives from the various student organizations on campus.

The candidates are:

Bridges, 25-year-old senior at UNC, majoring in American Studies.

Viner, 24-year-old junior at UNC, majoring in Economics.

Both candidates are members of Phi Beta Kappa and are standing for re-election to the Student Council.

The candidates will be selected by the Student Council, which is made up of representatives from the various student organizations on campus.
Conyers Urges Americans To Solve Racial Problems

By JEREMIAH BENNETT

U.S. Rep. John Conyers, Jr., of Detroit, speaking after the nomination of his colleague, Rep. Charles B. Rangel, N.Y., for the House of Representatives, has praised Mr. Conyers' efforts on behalf of civil rights and called for a peaceful solution to the problem of racial discrimination.

"I have always been concerned with the issue of race," Mr. Conyers told his colleagues. "I believe that we must find a way to resolve these differences peacefully and justly."

Mr. Conyers' remarks were met with applause from the floor of the House.

"I thank you for your support," Mr. Conyers said. "I will continue to work towards a peaceful resolution of this problem."
Mr. Golf Returns To Wake Forest

RICHARD BINK

Mr. Golf, as he's known in the golfing world, returned to Wake Forest. The King was greeted by President Balch, Dean of Faculty, and Adolpho Palma, former men's basketball coach, who arranged for a special course setup for the day. Palma, who has won over $100,000 on the professional circuit, joked, "I'd like to pay for my lunch three times a day for the rest of my life, but I still can't afford to pay Adolpho's rate!"

After the breakfast, the President addressed the assembled guests, stressing the importance of golf in the lives of Wake Forest students. He then introduced President Palmer, who said, "Wake Forest is proud of its golf tradition, and we welcome Mr. Golf back anytime."

For G G G

Mr. Golf was in this event to play in the Greater Greensboro Open. He had to leave the event on Thursday due to personal reasons. However, he is expected to return to the event on Friday to continue his play. He was quick to point out how much he enjoyed the event and how much he looks forward to returning next year.

Weaver, who is no stranger to the tournament, said, "It's a great event, and I'm looking forward to coming back next year."

The event was a huge success, with thousands of spectators attending the event. The tournament continued on Friday with the same level of excitement and enthusiasm as the previous day.

Worsham Scholarship Increased

A $10,000 check from the Greensboro Chamber of Commerce was presented to the Gideon of the World's Fair, a scholarship recipient, at a ceremony held on Thursday. The scholarship is named in honor of the late Mr. Worsham, who was a key figure in the world of golf.

The scholarship recipient, who was not identified, said, "I am very grateful for this opportunity. It will allow me to continue my education and pursue my dream of becoming a professional golfer."

Worsham, who was a devoted supporter of the sport of golf, left a legacy that will continue to impact the lives of many students. His scholarship will continue to support deserving students, and his legacy will live on through the generations.

DAVE ROBERTS

SPORTS EDITOR

Cherry Street '725-8'791

THE NEWSTOWN

We Flat Feed You

Fried Fillet Of Flounder

WITH FRENCH FRIES, COLE SLAW, BISCUIT

TRAVEL HOST OF AMERICA

Motel Reservation 18-1000

Res. 721-9466

MURPHY'S

College Plaza Shopping Center

Aerospace Co.

CINEMA LAUNDRY

OPEN 24 HOURS

PIEDMONT AIRLINES

Piedmont Airlines, serving the world's airports.

Players In Good Spirits

Deacs Begin Spring Drills

By BILL UPTON

The Deacons arrived in Florida last week and began their spring workouts under the direction of Dick Anderson. The Deacs have performed well in the early workouts, and the prospects for the upcoming season are very good.

During the first football practice yesterday morning, the Deacs showed a lot of promise. The offense was sharp, and the defense was solid. The team worked very hard on their drills, and the results were impressive.

The Deacs are coming off a successful season last year, and the expectations are high for 1976. The team is expected to be one of the top contenders in the Southern Intercollegiate Conference.

JULIET MCGREGOR

SPORTS EDITOR

Cherry Street '725-8'791

THE NEWSTOWN
Wake Golfers Off To Winning Start

By RICHARD SINK

The golf team is off to a 9-2 start in NCAA play, winning the first three of four tournaments. The team had a 2-up match at the start of the season over Ohio State and was a 2-up victor in the first of four matches at Ohio State. The team also defeated the University of Missouri 2-up last weekend.

The team's most recent victory was over the University of Illinois 2-up and 1-up. The team is off to a 9-2 start in NCAA play.

The team's most recent victory was over the University of Illinois 2-up and 1-up. The team is off to a 9-2 start in NCAA play.

The team's most recent victory was over the University of Illinois 2-up and 1-up. The team is off to a 9-2 start in NCAA play.

The team's most recent victory was over the University of Illinois 2-up and 1-up. The team is off to a 9-2 start in NCAA play.

The team's most recent victory was over the University of Illinois 2-up and 1-up. The team is off to a 9-2 start in NCAA play.

The team's most recent victory was over the University of Illinois 2-up and 1-up. The team is off to a 9-2 start in NCAA play.

The team's most recent victory was over the University of Illinois 2-up and 1-up. The team is off to a 9-2 start in NCAA play.

The team's most recent victory was over the University of Illinois 2-up and 1-up. The team is off to a 9-2 start in NCAA play.

The team's most recent victory was over the University of Illinois 2-up and 1-up. The team is off to a 9-2 start in NCAA play.