Mrs. Cullom, loved citizen, dies at home

Funeral services held by Dr. C. H. Loyd, last Friday.

Last Thursday morning, March 30, Mrs. M. D. Cullom, aged 65, wife of Dr. M. D. Cullom, physician, was found dead in her home. Friends and acquaintances were shocked and saddened by the news, by the fact that the woman of the peace, the one that was loved by everyone.

Mrs. Cullom was born at Christiansville, Va., in 1859. She was married to Dr. Cullom in 1880. They lived in the neighborhood of the town for 70 years. She taught school for many years, and was a member of the town's school board, helping to promote education for the children. She was a member of the town's school board, helping to promote education for the children.

It was during her spare time that she taught school. She taught school for many years, and was a member of the town's school board, helping to promote education for the children. She was a member of the town's school board, helping to promote education for the children.

Mrs. Cullom's body was taken to a local funeral home for temporary arrangements. Services were held at the home of the deceased's relatives on March 30.

Pan-Hel Dances
Set for April 15

Hershey Guppin's Band Will Furnish Music For Spring Frolics

The Pan-Hel Association has announced the making of the arrangements for their initial dance for April. The festivities will be held on Friday, April 15, at the Recital Hall. The program will be under the direction of Hershey Guppin's Band, and will provide music for the evening's activities. The Pan-Hel Association has announced the making of the arrangements for their initial dance for April. The festivities will be held on Friday, April 15, at the Recital Hall. The program will be under the direction of Hershey Guppin's Band, and will provide music for the evening's activities.

STATEMENT ELECTIONS

Elections will be held on Friday, April 15, for the officers of the Student Council. The elections will be held at the Recital Hall. The election will be held at the Recital Hall.

Jackson Announces Campaign Meets

Clarence Bowden
Bowed Elected Student Director

The theme of the meeting was "The One Thing," which was the theme of the meeting. The theme of the meeting was "The One Thing," which was the theme of the meeting.

The Cooperative

Fibbing Tatter, Train Inspector, Keeper of Stills—Our Faculty!

By Lib Jones

It's hard to believe—it is all too true. Now is the time to begin the new year. Now is the time to begin the new year. Now is the time to begin the new year.

The emphasis in the spring is on the improvement of the faculty. The emphasis in the spring is on the improvement of the faculty. The emphasis in the spring is on the improvement of the faculty.

It is the time to begin the new year. It is the time to begin the new year. It is the time to begin the new year.

First to Cooperate

Robert Patterson answered the letter from the Student Council, saying, "The students of the College have always been cooperative in the spring. The students of the College have always been cooperative in the spring. The students of the College have always been cooperative in the spring.

The emphasis in the spring is on the improvement of the faculty. The emphasis in the spring is on the improvement of the faculty. The emphasis in the spring is on the improvement of the faculty.

The letter from the Student Council was signed by Robert Patterson, who is the President of the College. The letter from the Student Council was signed by Robert Patterson, who is the President of the College. The letter from the Student Council was signed by Robert Patterson, who is the President of the College.
Societies Want Attention

There are many students on this campus who do not realize that there are two literary societies which have an important function to perform—by selecting and training possible good speakers. At the beginning of the fall quarter the attendance at the society meetings was high, but with each passing week the number decreased till it is almost non-existent.

Why? Our reason is that there are too many other meetings scheduled on Monday night, the night in which we have our society meetings. When there was television in our homes society meetings were canceled. For instance, in the Fall semester the college department of the arts and sciences canceled society meetings, and they spent their Monday nights going to one meeting after another which are said to be of "more importance".

Another reason, perhaps, is that the society meetings are not being planned with so much thought and organization during the past quarter as in the previous one. But this has been corrected, a committee of students and faculty have organized their society meetings for this quarter and we hope that they will be of interest to everyone.

In former years the Phi Delta and Eta were two of the largest organizations on the campus.

There were very few students who did not attend the meetings regularly every week. Their leaders have become disinterested or the lack of interest is so great that they are still dissolved. Our society existing and to meet the standards which the faculty have set.

One of the outstanding events of this quarter will be the Valentine's dance, this will be the first of its kind in the history of the college. The society members have planned and arranged for the dance to be a success, and they have invited all the students to attend.

Furthermore, the Phi Delta and Eta will be presenting the best orations of the year, the program at these orations will be as follows:

1. "The American Scene" by Dr. W. H. Robinson
2. "The Future of the World" by Dr. J. E. Smith
3. "The Role of the University" by Dr. L. M. Johnson
4. "The Importance of Education" by Dr. E. H. Brown

We hope that all students will attend these orations and hear the best orations of the year.

Mrs. W. R. Culham

Last week Wake Forest lost one of its best citizens, a woman who prized and regarded all the people who gave to our lives the greatest pleasure, her influence has spread to all who have known her as a shining symbol of faith and love.

Her influence was her own, her aim was to please and do right. During her last years of her life, years in which she was confined to her bed, there was never a word of complaint. Instead she maintained a cheerful and positive attitude, that radiated through her and throughout the community.

Because her life was dedicated to sacrificing for others, her sorrow and their joy, her influence has been great. She was the light which, though gone, continues to shine in the home, so well she knew her heart, and will continue to live on, her spirit being as an inspiration, an example of the spiritual life of our people.

To Mrs. W. R. Culham

By Graceaddock Freeman

I urge all those who are present, and yet I feel her spirit knew Good loved paths and quiet pools where the sailboat would gently glide. She liked the music which was, though gone, continues to shine in the home, so well she knew her heart, and will continue to live on, her spirit being as an inspiration, an example of the spiritual life of our people.

Wake Forest, N. C.
April 2, 1944

About Simons Dormitory

With regards to the meeting situation that now confronts the College, I wish to assure all concerned that it is the policy of the College to arrange matters that the best interests and the comfort of its students shall be served. In our capacity as stewards of God, we shall be willing to entertain differences of opinion. In accordance with this principle, we have agreed to have a meeting every week at 8 p.m. to discuss any matters that you feel need our attention.

Secretary of Board of Trustees

With The Men In Service

Lt. E. S. Henningson, '29, the first cadet to be sent to the University, is serving in the 16th Field Artillery, and it is expected that he will be mustered out of the service in a short time.

Mr. J. D. Minton, '24, who is serving in the Navy, has been transferred to the 1st Reconnaissance Unit at the Naval Air Station, Anniston, Alabama.

Mrs. E. B. Earnshaw, this time, she'd walk through Spring with God.

About Simmons

Another reason is that Simmons will now be occupied by male or female students. The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.

The Student Body feels, though (and this is a well-considered reason), that it is more desirable for the use of young women.
Senior Personalities

By Alice Holliday

You know him. Everybody knows him. His name is Billie Collier. He's one of those kids who has a lot of friends. You might think that he's a jock, but he isn't. He's a regular student, and he's always ready to help other people.

Collier Elected

At a meeting of the coeds last week, Billie Collier was elected representative to the Student Council. He defeated Lois Odum, and will succeed Virginia Gilley, who was recently elected president of the Woman's Student Government.

An amendment to the coed's constitution was suggested to be voted on at a later date. The suggested amendment was to change the time of election of the officers of vice-president, secretary, and treasurer to a date during the last two weeks of the spring term. The time of election of president, which is in March, will not be changed.

The coeds plan to give a party on April 22 in the Community House. The party will take the place of the usual one given by the Student Council.

PHILMATHENIANS

(Continued from Page 3)

dozen men, who were the guests of the Phil- mathenians and the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. They contributed many of the songs which were sung during the afternoon session.

The next meeting of the Philmathenians will be held in the Student Center on April 15 at 8 p.m.

SIGMA PI ALPHA

Initiates Members

The following page contains the names of the new members of the Sigma Pi Alpha fraternity.

The first part of the meeting was given over to the formal business of the chapter. The meeting was called to order by President Morgan, who presided in the absence of President Beatty. The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting and the treasurer's report. The president then called on the members present to introduce themselves.

The meeting was then adjourned.

The Sigma Pi Alpha fraternity is active on the campus and is one of the largest organizations on the campus.

TATTLER

(Continued from Page 11)

LOST

A pair of colorless plastic rim glasses in brown leather case.

RETURN TO

Morgan, Walker Speak in Chapel

Young people of Wake Forest often have a hard time deciding what to do before they go to chapel. They often wonder what will happen if they go to chapel and what will happen if they don't go. The problem of deciding whether or not to go to chapel is often a difficult one for them.

The general football situation was clarified by Capt. D. C. Wilson, who said that the team was in no danger of losing. The team is expected to win the game with ease.

According to Capt. D. C. Wilson, the team is expected to win the game with ease.

The general football situation was clarified by Capt. D. C. Wilson, who said that the team was in no danger of losing. The team is expected to win the game with ease.

LOST

A pair of colorless plastic rim glasses in brown leather case.

RETURN TO

Morgan, Walker Speak in Chapel

Young people of Wake Forest often have a hard time deciding what to do before they go to chapel. They often wonder what will happen if they go to chapel and what will happen if they don't go. The problem of deciding whether or not to go to chapel is often a difficult one for them.
Nine Years Of NYA Brought $113,092

Hundreds of Wake Forest Men Returned to College

J. 1. Sasser, Jr.

In that first year a nearly 100 percent college, students, etc. number of young people at Wake Forest was placed through the Federal Emergency Relief Administration. The administration of this program was thus made possible by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, the National Youth Administration and the National Youth Administration, Inc., which did not allow the administration of the program. The program was made possible by a very valuable group of workers which were working to train students to continue their education.

The first job, of course, was to assist students in obtaining employment. This caused a great decrease in the demand for Federal Emergency Relief Administration, as the administration of this program continued to be cut. The administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, and in 1936-37 the administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, was discontinued. The administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, as the administration of this program continued to be cut. The administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, as the administration of this program continued to be cut.

At the end of the fiscal year 1935-'36, the administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, had been completed in pencil, the lines were painted in watercolor, and the lines were painted in watercolor, 1938-39.

Since the completion of the project by the first student worker as he was able to give to all of the students who had been placed in the institution, the administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, had been completed in pencil, the lines were painted in watercolor, 1938-39.

During the first semester of the school year of giving guidance and instruction to The first job, of course, was to assist students in obtaining employment. This caused a great decrease in the demand for Federal Emergency Relief Administration, as the administration of this program continued to be cut. The administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, as the administration of this program continued to be cut.

At the end of the fiscal year 1935-'36, the administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, had been completed in pencil, the lines were painted in watercolor, and the lines were painted in watercolor, 1938-39.

Since the completion of the project by the first student worker as he was able to give to all of the students who had been placed in the institution, the administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, had been completed in pencil, the lines were painted in watercolor, 1938-39.

During the first semester of the school year of giving guidance and instruction to The first job, of course, was to assist students in obtaining employment. This caused a great decrease in the demand for Federal Emergency Relief Administration, as the administration of this program continued to be cut. The administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, as the administration of this program continued to be cut.

At the end of the fiscal year 1935-'36, the administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, had been completed in pencil, the lines were painted in watercolor, and the lines were painted in watercolor, 1938-39.

Since the completion of the project by the first student worker as he was able to give to all of the students who had been placed in the institution, the administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, had been completed in pencil, the lines were painted in watercolor, 1938-39.

During the first semester of the school year of giving guidance and instruction to The first job, of course, was to assist students in obtaining employment. This caused a great decrease in the demand for Federal Emergency Relief Administration, as the administration of this program continued to be cut. The administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, as the administration of this program continued to be cut.

At the end of the fiscal year 1935-'36, the administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, had been completed in pencil, the lines were painted in watercolor, and the lines were painted in watercolor, 1938-39.

Since the completion of the project by the first student worker as he was able to give to all of the students who had been placed in the institution, the administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, had been completed in pencil, the lines were painted in watercolor, 1938-39.

During the first semester of the school year of giving guidance and instruction to The first job, of course, was to assist students in obtaining employment. This caused a great decrease in the demand for Federal Emergency Relief Administration, as the administration of this program continued to be cut. The administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, as the administration of this program continued to be cut.

At the end of the fiscal year 1935-'36, the administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, had been completed in pencil, the lines were painted in watercolor, and the lines were painted in watercolor, 1938-39.

Since the completion of the project by the first student worker as he was able to give to all of the students who had been placed in the institution, the administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, had been completed in pencil, the lines were painted in watercolor, 1938-39.

During the first semester of the school year of giving guidance and instruction to The first job, of course, was to assist students in obtaining employment. This caused a great decrease in the demand for Federal Emergency Relief Administration, as the administration of this program continued to be cut. The administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, as the administration of this program continued to be cut.

At the end of the fiscal year 1935-'36, the administration of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration, had been completed in pencil, the lines were painted in watercolor, and the lines were painted in watercolor, 1938-39.