Disparities arise in professors' salaries

The average salary for professors at Wake Forest University, as reported by the American Association of University Professors (AAUP), has declined by nearly 2% from the previous year. The data was compiled from a survey of 1,200 universities across the United States, and it indicates a growing disparity in salaries across the academic community.

Professor David Johnson, the chair of the department of economics, noted, "The decline in average salary is concerning, especially when compared to the overall increase in the cost of living. It's important for universities to ensure that their faculty members are compensated fairly and adequately." Johnson added that the decrease in salary could impact the university's ability to attract and retain top talent.

The AAUP survey also found that the average salary for associate professors has declined by 3%, while the salary for assistant professors has remained relatively stable. However, full professors have seen a slight increase in salary, which may indicate a shift in the academic hierarchy.

In a statement, AAUP President Karen Obrist said, "The decline in professor salaries is a significant concern for all institutions of higher education. We must work together to ensure that our faculty members are fairly compensated for their hard work and contributions to our institutions."
Caution in the sun suggested

By P.J. HUNT

With the sun in full force only a few weeks away and the days of the warm season rapidly approaching, many think of summer. Of course, one of the primary considerations in thinking of summer is the potential threat of sunburn. The sun's rays can cause a variety of skin reactions and can be harmful to our health.

The time to prevent sunburn is in the spring before the peak of summer. However, it is never too late to begin the protection process. The summer season is composed of longer wavelengths or radiation known as UVB. These rays always start the season with the highest intensity, and thinking about summer means thinking about sunburn.

An incident of attempted arson was reported to the public safety office through Campus Crime Stoppers. The case has also been reported to the Wake Forest Police Department and the Wake County Sheriff's Office. The case is being investigated by the Wake Forest Police Department and the Wake County Sheriff's Office.

To report information concerning an unreported crime or incident, call Campus Crime Stoppers at 724-3341 or 761-5280. Anyone with information should contact Campus Crime Stoppers through the public safety office at 724-3341 or 761-5280. The public safety office is located on the first floor of the Student Services Building.

Federalist awards given

By P.J. HUNT

The Federalist Society held its annual spring awards banquet in the University Club on March 29, honoring a number of students and alumni who have made significant contributions to the study and advancement of the legal and constitutional principles of the Federalist Society.

The Federalist Society is a national libertarian, conservative, and constitutionalist organization that promotes the study and teaching of these principles throughout the country. The society's mission is to promote the study and teaching of the legal and constitutional principles of the Federalist Society.

The Federalist Society awards are given to individuals who have made significant contributions to the study and advancement of the legal and constitutional principles of the Federalist Society. The awards are given in a variety of categories, including law, education, and public service.

The awards banquet is an annual event that brings together members of the Federalist Society from across the country to celebrate the accomplishments of those who have made significant contributions to the study and advancement of the legal and constitutional principles of the Federalist Society.

The Federalist Society is a national libertarian, conservative, and constitutionalist organization that promotes the study and teaching of these principles throughout the country. The society's mission is to promote the study and teaching of the legal and constitutional principles of the Federalist Society.
Live parsley

Professor studies monitor alcohol

By ALSAN CAMPBELL

Well, Spring week is over and some thanks are in order. The Alcohol Committee has been busy this semester gathering contacts and putting together mailing lists. The new system is through the Rayburn hall. Over 100 hundred hundred contacts participated thanks to the Alcoholic Council as well as the Student Government. The main goal was to inform students about alcohol and how it affects us.

UNC-G presents religious drama

"God's Troubles," a religious drama by James W. Johnson, will be presented by UNC-Greensboro's Alpha Tau Alpha Drama Troupe. Friday, January 19th at the Dixie Center for the Performing Arts. The show will begin at 8 p.m. and tickets are $5.00 for adults, $2.50 for seniors and $1.00 for students. For further information, contact the Dixie Center at 321-8000.

Phi Beta Kappa initiates members

BY FRANK BERRY

Phi Beta Kappa is an honor society that recognizes excellence in the humanities and sciences. It was founded in 1743 at the College of William and Mary in Williamsburg, Virginia.

Computer Center Notes

New Oakwood Center Airing Area

CHAMPIONS WIRELESS - BEER CHEESE AND OTHER PARTY SUPPLIES

We Will Deliver

For your last minute convenience. We can deliver hot sub sandwiches and other Oakwood Center items to any location on campus. Call 231-8000 for more information.

Who's Open Late, For Great Food and Reasonable Prices?

We Are!!

Samplers

2951 NORTH CHERY STREET 724-7600

Dozens of menu items at $2.50 or less. Everything home prepared in our own kitchens. And don't forget our famous night time special on draft pitchers. Open Till Midnight Sun., Thurs. Till 10 Fri. & Sat.

So, Join The Crowd at Samplers

Old Gold & Black Newsletter

96 Carpena

8th Annual

Golden Ring

Saturday Night

Senior's Gather to Celebrate

Job Well Done

By ROBERT BURKETT

As the year comes to a close, many seniors complete their last school. To celebrate this occasion the Student Senate Council sponsored the annual Senior's Party.

E lecturer

Asp lectures celebrated Shakespeare's birthday

BY THOMAS AGILE

Located in the Carolina Center, the Shakespeare Society is sponsoring a celebration of Shakespeare's birthday with two lectures on interesting Shakespeare topics. The first lecture will be presented by Professor Carolyn Asp, of Marquette University, who will discuss Shakespeare's birthday in a day early March with two lectures on interesting Shakespeare topics. The second lecture will be presented by Professor Carolyn Asp, of Marquette University, who will discuss Isabella, from the Italian Macbeth. She will discuss Isabella's internal conflict and her ability to obtain a dominant position in society. The two lectures will be held in the Carolina Center and will be followed by a reception in the Carolina Center. The event is free and open to the public.
Salary comparisons

The most recent statistics on salaries from the American Association of University Professors report that the status of the academy is deteriorating, and that the academic profession is becoming less attractive to potential educators. The most crucial factor, if not the most important, is the average pay to professors. Increasing the pay of professors is important, if not crucial, to potential educators who may not otherwise be attracted to teaching. The pay must be competitive with that of the nation's other highly educated professions. Inadequate pay means that potential educators may choose other lucrative options.

The issue of faculty salaries is crucial. Interesting work is done at many universities. Without adequate pay, however, many of these scholars may be lost to the world. The response was fully listed in a recent issue of Policy. Any frequent visitor to the forum will have noticed the predominance of all-male events. In one such event, a forum was clearly a success in terms of attendance. The problem was the inadequate seating arrangements. An informal question-answer session was held. One student asked about the facilities of room Arts. Faculty were present, and all were interested in the room's adequacy. The facilities were suitable for the current academic conditions.

Moreover, the classes held for capable of proposing solutions to these problems. The forum was clearly a success in terms of attendance. The problem was the inadequate seating arrangements. An informal question-answer session was held. One student asked about the facilities of room Arts. Faculty were present, and all were interested in the room's adequacy. The facilities were suitable for the current academic conditions.

The standing ovation which greeted the conclusion of Wednesday night's symposium on the Future of Women, was unexpected. There were no reports of any such event ever being held. The program's planning committee has been accused of being sexist in the selection of topics.

The forum received some early criticism for its lack of female representation and for the exclusion of certain topics. In one case, it was noted that only male speakers were present. Women's issues were also excluded. The forum was organized by the forum organizing committee, which was composed exclusively of male members. There were no women on the organizing committee, and it was clear that the forum was not intended for women.

The forum was a success in terms of attendance. The problem was the inadequate seating arrangements. An informal question-answer session was held. One student asked about the facilities of room Arts. Faculty were present, and all were interested in the room's adequacy. The facilities were suitable for the current academic conditions.

The standing ovation which greeted the conclusion of Wednesday night's symposium on the Future of Women, was unexpected. There were no reports of any such event ever being held. The program's planning committee has been accused of being sexist in the selection of topics.

The forum received some early criticism for its lack of female representation and for the exclusion of certain topics. In one case, it was noted that only male speakers were present. Women's issues were also excluded. The forum was organized by the forum organizing committee, which was composed exclusively of male members. There were no women on the organizing committee, and it was clear that the forum was not intended for women.

The forum was a success in terms of attendance. The problem was the inadequate seating arrangements. An informal question-answer session was held. One student asked about the facilities of room Arts. Faculty were present, and all were interested in the room's adequacy. The facilities were suitable for the current academic conditions.

The standing ovation which greeted the conclusion of Wednesday night's symposium on the Future of Women, was unexpected. There were no reports of any such event ever being held. The program's planning committee has been accused of being sexist in the selection of topics.

The forum received some early criticism for its lack of female representation and for the exclusion of certain topics. In one case, it was noted that only male speakers were present. Women's issues were also excluded. The forum was organized by the forum organizing committee, which was composed exclusively of male members. There were no women on the organizing committee, and it was clear that the forum was not intended for women.

The forum was a success in terms of attendance. The problem was the inadequate seating arrangements. An informal question-answer session was held. One student asked about the facilities of room Arts. Faculty were present, and all were interested in the room's adequacy. The facilities were suitable for the current academic conditions.

The standing ovation which greeted the conclusion of Wednesday night's symposium on the Future of Women, was unexpected. There were no reports of any such event ever being held. The program's planning committee has been accused of being sexist in the selection of topics.

The forum received some early criticism for its lack of female representation and for the exclusion of certain topics. In one case, it was noted that only male speakers were present. Women's issues were also excluded. The forum was organized by the forum organizing committee, which was composed exclusively of male members. There were no women on the organizing committee, and it was clear that the forum was not intended for women.

The forum was a success in terms of attendance. The problem was the inadequate seating arrangements. An informal question-answer session was held. One student asked about the facilities of room Arts. Faculty were present, and all were interested in the room's adequacy. The facilities were suitable for the current academic conditions.

The standing ovation which greeted the conclusion of Wednesday night's symposium on the Future of Women, was unexpected. There were no reports of any such event ever being held. The program's planning committee has been accused of being sexist in the selection of topics.

The forum received some early criticism for its lack of female representation and for the exclusion of certain topics. In one case, it was noted that only male speakers were present. Women's issues were also excluded. The forum was organized by the forum organizing committee, which was composed exclusively of male members. There were no women on the organizing committee, and it was clear that the forum was not intended for women.

The forum was a success in terms of attendance. The problem was the inadequate seating arrangements. An informal question-answer session was held. One student asked about the facilities of room Arts. Faculty were present, and all were interested in the room's adequacy. The facilities were suitable for the current academic conditions.

The standing ovation which greeted the conclusion of Wednesday night's symposium on the Future of Women, was unexpected. There were no reports of any such event ever being held. The program's planning committee has been accused of being sexist in the selection of topics.

The forum received some early criticism for its lack of female representation and for the exclusion of certain topics. In one case, it was noted that only male speakers were present. Women's issues were also excluded. The forum was organized by the forum organizing committee, which was composed exclusively of male members. There were no women on the organizing committee, and it was clear that the forum was not intended for women.

The forum was a success in terms of attendance. The problem was the inadequate seating arrangements. An informal question-answer session was held. One student asked about the facilities of room Arts. Faculty were present, and all were interested in the room's adequacy. The facilities were suitable for the current academic conditions.

The standing ovation which greeted the conclusion of Wednesday night's symposium on the Future of Women, was unexpected. There were no reports of any such event ever being held. The program's planning committee has been accused of being sexist in the selection of topics.

The forum received some early criticism for its lack of female representation and for the exclusion of certain topics. In one case, it was noted that only male speakers were present. Women's issues were also excluded. The forum was organized by the forum organizing committee, which was composed exclusively of male members. There were no women on the organizing committee, and it was clear that the forum was not intended for women.

The forum was a success in terms of attendance. The problem was the inadequate seating arrangements. An informal question-answer session was held. One student asked about the facilities of room Arts. Faculty were present, and all were interested in the room's adequacy. The facilities were suitable for the current academic conditions.

...
Moral wolves

Many men have ascribed to the goal of improving the world for man. They assume their endeavors to do so are free, that this is a selfless act of humanity and reason. Such an assumption is fallacious. The human nature is inherently self-seeking and self-interested, and the humanism philosophy in reality is the result of one's self-deception. Most men have a part of the just nature that is also in themselves. Therefore, if one is to truly improve the world, they must act in their own self-interest. The human nature is inherently self-seeking and self-interested, and the humanism philosophy in reality is the result of one's self-deception. Most men have a part of the just nature that is also in themselves. Therefore, if one is to truly improve the world, they must act in their own self-interest.

No Freudian guilt

Strength in the new foreign policy

For more than a decade now, there has been much special attention as it has been an unbalanced shift in thinking among world leaders. People point to the fact that the US has not been among the first seven American presidents, only three have been Democratic. Many saw this as the collapse of the "New Deal coalition." Yet, all of the above outcomes are due to President Ronald Reagan's deflection of the new cold war's beginning to stability and become apparent. In the realm of foreign policy, Jesse Kirpatrick is the imitator of this new ideological shift. In a little speech to an American Enterprise Institute Kirpatrick damaged the idea that the world is divided into two opposing camps, one of us and one of them. Kirpatrick damaged the idea that the world is divided into two opposing camps, one of us and one of them.

The Soviet invasion of Afghanistan was, for most of us, revolting enough. For our adversary's global intentions were not in the least bit helped by the fact that Moscow had seized the prize of the world's most powerful military. Moscow had seized the prize of the world's most powerful military. This realization is not

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.

The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone. The theory is useful to justify the policy of detente, discerned by Kirpatrick, and it is also used as a useful device to discern the Soviet Union's intentions. However, Center was alone. The proponents of detente were too quick to realize that the policy which was meant for Americans the revolution of bondage along with the hope of better understanding between the Soviet and American people. The three perspectives generate substantial and would create class if left alone.
Curran reprimands fraternity actions

By BILLY BOGGIN

Due to a number of different minor violations throughout the year and in particular a "build-up of minor issues that is the corner of a university," the Kappa Sigma fraternity has been asked by Curran to have any alcohol-related events in their lounges until the first week of Fall, as a result of increased animosity between the two which resulted in a recent beer-bottle-throwing incident.

Curran feels that these situations are the beginning of situations that could explode if handled incorrectly and if more alcohol is allowed in the lounges. The fraternity has been asked to hand out any one that is asked to be "lightening and more formal." The Curran believes that these actions and those of his brothers.

One of the main reasons Curran feels that these situations are the beginning of situations that could explode if handled incorrectly and if more alcohol is allowed in the lounges. The fraternity has been asked to hand out any one that is asked to be "lightening and more formal." The Curran believes that these actions and those of his brothers.

One of the main reasons Curran feels that these situations are the beginning of situations that could explode if handled incorrectly and if more alcohol is allowed in the lounges. The fraternity has been asked to hand out any one that is asked to be "lightening and more formal." The Curran believes that these actions and those of his brothers.

One of the main reasons Curran feels that these situations are the beginning of situations that could explode if handled incorrectly and if more alcohol is allowed in the lounges. The fraternity has been asked to hand out any one that is asked to be "lightening and more formal." The Curran believes that these actions and those of his brothers.

One of the main reasons Curran feels that these situations are the beginning of situations that could explode if handled incorrectly and if more alcohol is allowed in the lounges. The fraternity has been asked to hand out any one that is asked to be "lightening and more formal." The Curran believes that these actions and those of his brothers.

One of the main reasons Curran feels that these situations are the beginning of situations that could explode if handled incorrectly and if more alcohol is allowed in the lounges. The fraternity has been asked to hand out any one that is asked to be "lightening and more formal." The Curran believes that these actions and those of his brothers.

One of the main reasons Curran feels that these situations are the beginning of situations that could explode if handled incorrectly and if more alcohol is allowed in the lounges. The fraternity has been asked to hand out any one that is asked to be "lightening and more formal." The Curran believes that these actions and those of his brothers.

One of the main reasons Curran feels that these situations are the beginning of situations that could explode if handled incorrectly and if more alcohol is allowed in the lounges. The fraternity has been asked to hand out any one that is asked to be "lightening and more formal." The Curran believes that these actions and those of his brothers.

One of the main reasons Curran feels that these situations are the beginning of situations that could explode if handled incorrectly and if more alcohol is allowed in the lounges. The fraternity has been asked to hand out any one that is asked to be "lightening and more formal." The Curran believes that these actions and those of his brothers.

One of the main reasons Curran feels that these situations are the beginning of situations that could explode if handled incorrectly and if more alcohol is allowed in the lounges. The fraternity has been asked to hand out any one that is asked to be "lightening and more formal." The Curran believes that these actions and those of his brothers.
Ormsby-Lennon advises English majors

By CARLA ATKinson

There are any English majors or students who are interested in English may consider the possibility of studying English at Wake Forest University. Ormsby-Lennon, a native of London, England, an English Professor at Wake Forest, uses his learning to meet the needs of those who later experience the beauty of English poetry.

For three years he studied English only, unlike what he later experienced at Wake Forest, and his learning to meet the needs of those who later found the beauty of English poetry.

For the past several weeks, Ormsby-Lennon, a native of London, England, has taught students to connect the play of each student as at the beginning of the previous year, the students are now busy blocking and preparing costumes and props as well as memorizing the lines for their scene. This begins in the spring with the music and design settings of the scenes from the fall. Each student, from the stage managers to the production assistants, has a role and is expected to work to the best of their abilities.

On Monday, April 15, 1974, Ormsby-Lennon, a native of London, England, an English Professor at Wake Forest, uses his learning to meet the needs of those who later experience the beauty of English poetry.

For three years he studied English only, unlike what he later experienced at Wake Forest, and his learning to meet the needs of those who later found the beauty of English poetry.

For the past several weeks, Ormsby-Lennon, a native of London, England, has taught students to connect the play of each student as at the beginning of the previous year, the students are now busy blocking and preparing costumes and props as well as memorizing the lines for their scene. This begins in the spring with the music and design settings of the scenes from the fall. Each student, from the stage managers to the production assistants, has a role and is expected to work to the best of their abilities.

In connecting on the difference of the American university, Ormsby-Lennon noted that the movie of Greel; the next move shall be to celebrate his class, while studying communication, that had the opportunity to be a part of the new society and Delphi's enthusiasm. The name Delphi was derived from President Catherine Ormsby-Lennon's middle name Delphi. Delphi means dolphin in Greek.

The Dolphin will serve as the society's mascot. Delphi's colors will be turquoise, black and white. The society is choosing to have a name that is traditional and unique. Our real purpose is to serve the Wake Forest University and the surrounding community.

In the spring of 1973, Ormsby-Lennon began the process of forming a new society. He contacted several friends who were interested in joining and sixteen charter members. The sisters agreed to form a society that would have a purpose of promoting the Wake Forest University and the surrounding community.

On May 1, 1974, Ormsby-Lennon moved on to public service. He Wake Forest. He and his wife chose Wake Forest for their students. The Dolphin will serve as the society's mascot. Delphi's colors will be turquoise, black and white. The society is choosing to have a name that is traditional and unique. Our real purpose is to serve the Wake Forest University and the surrounding community.

In the spring of 1973, Ormsby-Lennon began the process of forming a new society. He contacted several friends who were interested in joining and sixteen charter members. The sisters agreed to form a society that would have a purpose of promoting the Wake Forest University and the surrounding community.
Petty album released

by Ken Rosenfeld

The chances of the twelve string Rickenbacker being back, though many of you have been long enough to remember him, are minimal. Petty has made a successful return after he brushed off his hard at his studio and during a performance of "Southern Accents." Petty's latest is unique and is quite a bit different than any of the other Heartbreakers' albums. "Southern Accents" took a bit of getting used to, but I think I like it.

Petty has always been the born of the bad, fast, hard-hearted music scene. Rock and roll and so on. As a rock star, it not only makes sense that one's fans have a certain style to them. "Southern Accents" has that style. One's fans may set a laid back, cool, and an atmosphere that a listener can enjoy. Petty's latest is also has some exotic and funky seasonings mixed in. Many of the cuts on "Southern Accents" are laid back groovin' tunes. Generally, an audience and continually comes up with a fresh, intelligent sound should be rehashed and redefined.

One's fans have the same charm that a certain style of music that has a certain charm and can help you get the American Express Card. If you don't have a credit card or if you're not sure, you may want to consider the American Express Card. It has many great deals and services that can help you save money and get more out of your credit card.

The Grotto

NOW DELIVERING

PIZZA

Handmade pizzas - all natural ingredients

Special Monday, April 29th - Wednesday, May 1st
5:30 - Midnight
722-9337

First 10 pizzas ordered each night will be $1 off price.
Eleventh pizza ordered each night will be free.

Even before commencement, you could begin using the American Express Card.

Don't Blow It

Interview opportunities are few and far between. Learn how to capitalize on yours with our new instructional videotape entitled "Interview Techniques and Resume Tips for the Job Applicant." Our tape shows you, in vivid detail, how to distinguish yourself from the many other qualified candidates vying for a job. Give yourself the necessary edge.

Call Toll-Free: 1-800-437-0707

Use your Mastercard or Visa or Send $49.95 (inc. postage & handling) to Bennco Productions, Inc.

P.O. Box 637
Yonkers Avenue
Yonkers, NY 10704

Please specify VHS or Beta.

Eagle's Game Open

POOL TABLES VIDEO GAMES WEEK

Show your Wake Forest ID & shoot pool FREE Monday thru Thursday
4212 Erbd Rd. 784-7515

The Crotto Restaurant

120 E. Valley St.

Delivery Areas: West of Reynolds Road to Ransom Rd., East of Reynolds Road to Bethabara Rd., and north of this area. Also to Wake Forest and Polo road area to Cherry St.

MACHINERY

SMITHS

For the very best in genuine Smiths steels.

SMITHS

For the very best in genuine Smiths steels.

SMITHS

For the very best in genuine Smiths steels.

SMITHS

For the very best in genuine Smiths steels.
Basketball recruits

Men's basketball

Cal Boyd, a 6-11 altitudinal guard from Inver Grove, MN, will attend Wake Forest once he has completed his studies at South Dakota State. Boyd has verbally committed to Wake Forest head basketball coach Walter Davis. Cal Boyd has already announced.

Women's basketball

Sherrie Clark, a 6'2 center from Jacksboro-High School, and Susan Gemrich, a 6-1 forward coming out of Minneapolis, MN, have both signed with Wake Forest women's basketball coach Polly Austin.

Golfers finish third

The Piedmont Invitational was held at the Piedmont Country Club in High Point, NC. The team finished in third place. The team consisted of Mike Merritt, Jon Gemrich, and Jerry Haas. The team had a score of 880.

Collins awarded top honor

At the ACC Basketball Awards Banquet, held at the Sheraton Hotel in Charlotte, NC, Collins was named ACC Player of the Year. This award is given to the most outstanding player in the ACC. Collins had an outstanding season, leading Wake Forest to a berth in the NCAA Tournament. He was named ACC Player of the Year for his contributions to the team.
This was the year that was

Golfers finish third
Continued from page 9

...affirmative. Billy Anderson and Mike Perry also finished in the top twenty, and for Dortmund at 91. Chris Ellis finished at 231 in his third conference championship.

Chesny Freeman held the most interesting tournament at all of the competitors. He scored with an eight-over par 84 and then improved his performance during the next day of a tournament-record 71. His total for the four days was 302, to finish in the top thirty-

College Bookstores (At The Deacon Shop)
New Oversized (One Size Fits All)
White, Black Imprint
Wake Forest T-shirts

Wake Forest

The College Bookstore
On the campus

Corbin's
513 W. 20th St.
Winston-Salem, N.C.
723-0850

Monday
99¢ Cans, $1.50 all white liquors

Tuesday
$1.50 House Drinks, Import Specials & $2.75 Pitchers
99¢ Cans No Cover

Wednesday
Ladies Night
99¢ Wine Spritzers, Wine Coolers & House Wines All Night (For Ladies)
No Cover For Ladies

Never a Cover Charge For Members on Weekdays

Memberships Available at the Door