

I just came clean from Holly wood - am that something -

On my way to NY I stopped in Louisiana to get me some new winter
jewelry - I met Huey Long down there - and got this <sup>souvenir</sup> for the battle of Long Island.

Huey - Sai a Mae do you remember me?

I said I can't recall your face but your lady has familiar -

He invited me to one of his political meetings when Huey walked in

The band started playing a new song he wrote King for a day - when they saw me they changed it to God Save the King.
 I said what are you trying to do - insult me?

Then Stacey wanted to have my picture painted to hang up in his college next to George Washington.
 I never met this guy Washington but if he looks like his picture I'd like to feel his muscle.

Stacey said - I guess I've have you done in oil.
 I said <sup>well,</sup> I've been done carry other way - I guess a little oil won't hurt.

 Then Huey gave me about a twenty dollar gold piece to pay for some perfume. He said
 ah Madam, I see you've been hoarding - I ain't never mind how I got it - and don't call me Madam, call me Toots.
 Then I asked Huey
 his opinion of himself.
 He said I can say it in two words: colossal.
 When he asked for my opinion I told him I'm the tired business man

idea of Cleopatra.

Some of his senators admitted my dress - they wanted to feel the material

I said never mind, it's just a lot of crepe - Henry said what'll I tell em?

Said Tell em that I'm just a campfire girl pure as the driven sleet and you can tell em I'm as fine a woman as ever walked the street
