Coeds May Now Wear Bermudas On Campus

Mrs. Lois Johnson, in her recent statement, has indicated that "the anticipated value of these considerations has long seemed to me a false one. In fact, I do not see it as a true value to be achieved through the establishment of a new subculture that resists the basic elements of our society."

Football Scouting Plan Is Declared Ingenious

By BETTYE BAKE NANCE

Special to The Sun

A controversial new football scouting plan has been commissioned by Billy Beasley, director of the College Athletic Department.

The plan, which has been a combination of traditional scouting methods and modern technological tools, is designed to help the football team gain a competitive advantage.

Under the new system, scouts will observe games in which their assigned targets are playing. They will also analyze game footage to identify potential recruits.

The plan has been met with mixed reactions from the players and fans alike. Some are excited about the potential for new talent to be discovered, while others fear it might lead to a loss of the team's traditional identity.

Revolutionists Take Over Radio Station, OGB, Later Defeated

By BENJAMIN FISHEL DRAYTON

The student-run radio station at the college was taken over by revolutionists later that night.

The revolutionists, who had been planning a takeover for weeks, successfully gained control of the station and began broadcasting revolutionary music.

However, the authorities were quick to respond. They sent in a special unit to retake the station and restore order.

Students Sue To Liberalize Admissions

In the most significant news of the year, the students have filed a lawsuit to liberalize admissions policies at the college.

The students argue that the current policies are discriminatory and unfair, and they are seeking a court order to compel the administration to change them.

The administration has not yet responded to the lawsuit.
Down With Bermudas

Everyone should note with interest the new rulings concerning Bermudas on campus. The present stance of the college has been wonderful what the coeds have been doing about Bermudas in recent weeks.

For instance, students have been seen wearing Bermudas in public places, a bold move that has been met with approbate comments from the faculty and administration. It seems that the college has finally taken a stand against the prevalent Bermudas dress code.

Many students have expressed their support for the new ruling, stating that it is time for the college to stand up against the popular dress code.

Tribble Makes Good

Our hearty congratulations go out to our new student,刹 physical for his recent display of versatility in gaining admission to the college.

The admission committee voted last week to admit Brackett, who is one of several students who have applied for entrance. This move was in response to student petitions and in gaining the college's attention.

Everyone should note with interest the news every day that Brackett, the newest member of the college, will bring to the campus.

For instance, Brackett's presence on campus will stimulate the male imagination--a sight that has been long overdue. Everyone is hoping that Brackett will continue to bring new ideas and perspectives to the college.

New College Is Approved

By RUSSELL BRUCKLEY

State action by the trustees and subsequent approval by the legislature on Friday closed in Florida's first new college since 1931.

The measure was brought about by the legislature's decision to make a state financial gift to the Florida State Teachers College at Tallahassee.

The college was called for in the legislature's action because of its financial need and the fact that it is a state college.

The university is located on the campus of the Florida State Teachers College at Tallahassee.

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (AP) — Harold (Bones) McKinney, 1972 ACC Player of the Year, has decided to attend the 2nd, 3rd and 4th brand Ford ro

While Tribble's race was not without k nounced as it hard casualties over the Hall barricade. cecding Horace (Bones) McKinney strong up front-and it's what's up Harold said, "We'll probably do a lot of painting that present-year, so it should be a few games (it's the "line of averages". We'll be pretty solid in that area, but this is where we are going to have to find our strength in basketball.

Hollingsworth, in particular was an all-American player for Wake Forest. He was a key member of the 1972 ACC Championship team and helped lead the Demon Deacons to the NCAA Tournament. Hollingsworth's presence will be sorely missed as Wake Forest looks to build on its success from last season.

The Wake Forest Demon Deacons are expected to be one of the top teams in the ACC this season. Hollingsworth's leadership and on-court presence will be missed, but the team has the talent to continue to compete at a high level in the ACC.

Treyton delivers the flavor...
