I met a singing girlie far away in Singapore She sang late and early heavenly songs that I adore she's the daughter of an idol that's what she told me but when she dances tiny feet in silken sandals slender arms like Chinese candle almond eyes so soft and gentle my emotions / Oriental In blue about her side red30" arms and fingers like memories over Israel one of two slender wriggling trips my romance was in paradise but while the Moon was on the Rise

Trump Trump Trump the Japs are marching Trump Trump Trump hear the Cammour roar
There's a Colonel on the stage with the Tokio emblem high.
They'll fly thousand's more to win
The war.

Tramp, Tramp, Tramp,
Under blue tattoo,
Over the Burma road we'll find The U.S.A. and marching, going that can play a rat tat tat in a Yankee Doodle way.
