California Sen. Tunney Will Give Closing Speech For Challenge '71 Program

BY JOHN TUNNEY

Senator John V. Tunney of California will deliver the closing lecture of Challenge '71, on Tuesday, March 20, at 11:00 a.m., in DeTamble. Tunney was born in 1908, in New York City, and has served since 1956 as the incumbent Republican George Murphy. He will have an opportunity to express his ideas in the future of the student had the opportunity only to listen and ask questions. The play takes place in an urban area, with the audience members discussing the construction of a better environment.

The goal of the Challenge program is to educate all students about the environment and to encourage them to become involved in environmental issues. The program includes a range of activities, such as lectures, panel discussions, and films, and is open to Wake Forest students.

One of the main goals of the program is to raise awareness about the environmental crisis and to encourage students to take action. The program aims to promote environmental literacy and to provide students with the knowledge and skills they need to become effective environmental citizens. The program is open to all students and is free of charge.

In conclusion, the Challenge program is an important opportunity for Wake Forest students to learn about the environmental crisis and to become involved in efforts to address it. The program is an excellent resource for students who want to learn more about the environment and to become active citizens in the fight to protect our planet.

If you are interested in learning more about the Challenge program, please visit the Challenge Office in 219 Reynolda Hall at Wake Forest. You can also contact the program coordinators by phone at 336-758-2123. The program is open to all students and is free of charge.