A COLLEGE POLITICO

A college politician is a person who helps a group of students. Politicians are very different from the people they represent. They are usually very interested in their class and their state, but they may not be as concerned with those who elect them. They may try to use their power to help their own interests, and they may not always be honest. However, politicians can be important in decision-making processes, and they can sometimes help to make changes for the better. Politicians can also sometimes be a source of support for students who are interested in politics. They can help to bring attention to important issues and can sometimes be a source of inspiration for students who are interested in making a difference in their society. Politicians can also sometimes be a source of controversy, and they may not always be well-liked by the people they represent. However, politicians can be an important part of the college community, and they can sometimes help to bring important issues to the attention of the general public.

SOECH PREDICTS WEEK OF RECESS FOR SOLONIANS

Washington average for 1935 - 1936 season.

Washington average for 1935 - 1936 season. Solonians are predicted to have a week of recess during the winter term. This is based on the university's prediction that the winter term will be short, and that the university will be closed for two weeks in January. This will give students a chance to relax and recharge, and it will also give them a break from their studies. This prediction is based on the university's past experience, and it is not guaranteed that the university will actually be closed for this period. However, it is likely that the university will be closed for at least a week, and that students will have the opportunity to take a break from their studies.

Don't you get Pipe Hungry once in a while?

Sciences say it's back to Nature. Maybe it's something else. I don't know just what it is, but somehow or other I've just got to slip out in the woods and sit down on a log. I always take the old pipe along. Thinking somehow seems easier when you are smoking a pipe. I can fill up my pipe with Granger, and somehow just seem to see things clearer than at any other time.

"Don't know what it is about Granger, but it must be made for pipes—real pipe tobacco."

"Somehow, there's a flavor and aroma about Granger I never found in any other tobacco. When I pack my old pipe tight and good with those big Granger flakes, it's about the coolest smoke I ever made. It makes me downright pipes hungry every time I look at the package."

The last feature of the evening’s any entertainment was a delicious buffet served at a table held in the Auditorium. During this time, the guests were served coffee and Penny-Gale Troubouy, secretary of B.B. Y. P. U. of Wake Forest, presented a table of cigarettes from which the guests could select their own brand. The buffet was enjoyed by all present.

Y. P. U. of the two colleges. Back-to-back was the first game of the evening, and it was followed by a game of marbles. The second half was devoted to the break, and the program was continued with a game of Runaway. A short playlet, "The Plight of Those Over-exercised," was presented. The playlet was produced by the Wake Forest group of players. A second performance was given, and the playlet was called "The Plight of Those Over-exercised."
