FOOTBALL TEAM LEAVES TO PLAY GEORGIA TECH

Team Hopes to Make Good; Showing Game to be Played in Atlanta Today

We may not win over Tech, but we are going to be whipped until the final whistle blows," said one of the Wake Forest football players as the team left Friday afternoon for Atlanta, Georgia, to play Georgia Tech today. The team was in fine spirits and hoped to convince last year's All-American and former Skipper of the Georgia Tech football team, that he did not overlook some prominent a place as the Georgian.

The Georgians have seen all of the assorted amount of experienced football players out for the team that are attempting something which few players have attempted. In the Georgia Tech game, Wake players will face two teams, the football teams of the Wake Forest and Furman University, and the neither team will be so tough as the two. The Georgia Tech team is not made up of players as big as the Wake Forest team as they would against, one Georgia Tech being a 220-pounder for the two teams. The chances are that the Wake players will have to learn how to hit a big fellow. All of the players will be seen only by well-known players as the Game will be played on Riddick Field, in Raleigh; while the players will be binned in the Georgia Tech game.

MACDONNELL ACCEPTS POSITION AS DIRECTOR

Enters Upon New Duties: Immediately Football Propects Bright

The favorably impression made on the student body and faculty by Coach MacDonnell during his three weeks stay off the Hill is reflected in his recent appointment by a special committee of the Board of Trustees to the position of Director of Gymnasium and Head Coach of all athletes at Wake Forest College. The appointment is to go into effect immediately.

For the past two weeks Coach MacDonnell has been devoting all of his time and energy to the building up of a football machine that will give the college football in the gridiron sport; and with the limited material at his command during the early part of the season, he has already succeeded in developing a team that compares favorably with eleven of former seasons. A thorough student of the game, he knows how to handle men and the needs of the team. Wake Forest can expect one of the most successful football years in the history of the school at this institution.

NEW MEMBERS JOIN TWO LITERARY SOCIETIES

Speeches of Welcome Made by Members of the Faculty and Others

After two weeks of impatient waiting ninety-two members of the freshman class became members of the Beta Psi and Philomathian Literary Societies on last Friday night, September 21, when those two societies threw open their doors to the freshman class. Speeches of welcome were made by various members of the Faculty and by some of the students of Wake Forest who are loyal sons of the two societies. In most of it, good was given to the new men, and most of them took it seriously. The welcome in the Belles and Phils was followed by a banquet among the new and old members.

Of the ninety-two joining the two societies, the Philomathian Society received fifty-seven and the Beta Psi forty-five. Of the ninety-two, twenty-five were freshmen; the remainder of the number of freshmen coming into college this year, the two societies did not receive as many members as they usually receive, but this is lacking in quantity it is hoped will be made up in quality. Among those who joined were several ex-high school men who called: C. C. Wake Forest fifteen years ago to compete in the first inter-scholar football game. The game was played on the Wake Forest campus, and the result was a tie. The game is to be played on the upper part of the upper part of the hill, the football coach has been elected to take Mr. Crizer's place.

Although Mr. MacDonnell has never played basketball, he understands the game thoroughly and will make him a good coach. He knows how to handle men and how they work, as he has shown already on the football field.

BASKETBALL SQUAD STARTS PRACTICE THIS WEEK

With Many Old Men Back Prospects are Bright

Basketball practice began Monday, when Captain Nicklan of the junior men's basketball squad, took the club to work. The team will be put through light practice until Thanksgiving, when the football men join the squad, Coach MacDonnell takes charge and the real work of forming the team will begin.

From the present outlook it seems that we are going to have another championship team. Most of the men of last year's team are back and there are also several very promising freshmen players here. The loss of Captain Bob Halpin at our center, Frank Smith, who left the squad at the time of the semi-finals will be felt, but there remains enough of the old team around which to build a strong squad.

In Hanley, Thompson and Swers, we have as strong defensive players as are in the State. The position at guard, which is vacant, will probably be filled by a copy of Dixon. Bill Dickerson is the only one of last year's forwards back, McKean, Brown, Traylor, Laffey, and Need are candidates for the vacant at forward.

In the resignation of Mr. Crizer, Wake Forest lost one of the best. If not the best coach in the South, he will be greatly missed by Mr. Rowland and the football team, coach has been elected to take Mr. Crizer's place. Mr. MacDonnell has never played basketball, he understands the game thoroughly and will make him a good coach. He knows how to handle men and how they work, as he has shown already on the football field.

CLASS OF 1921 MEETS AND ELECTS OFFICERS

Mr. Rufus Hunter of Raleigh President of Class

Meeting on last Tuesday under the auspices of the august Society of the Class of 1921, the purpose of electing officers for the session, the freshman class, after an hour of usual uproar which so often1, trudged the area of the presiding senator, elected Mr. Rufus Hunter of Raleigh to direct them through their usual tribulations and bungling.

All offices were hotly contested, each office having at least three candidates for the honor. Because there was never a majority each candidate receiving the highest number of votes was declared elected. Under such conditions the election proceeded without incident until the newly chosen president was called upon for a speech, and resigned his office as the requirement for their loyal support and stated that he was glad they thought so much of him. When W. H. Green was elected to hold the strings of the cashier, class, curmudgeon, a position requiring more patience than skill, he readily accepted, and when the word came of which it was a better record.

Since the withdrawal of Mr. E. E. Britton from the editorship of the News and Observer, Mr. R. W. Haywood, B.A. 1894, has become the Acting Editor. He is beginning to give the readers the "Old Reliable" an editorial page that is inviting and readable. Mr. Haywood discusses live topics in a clear, often convincing manner, and he is never long and wearisome.

We suppose that Mr. Haywood may have something to do with the more newsy appearance of the news section of the paper, or at least he is not interfering with the man who gets up its forms so as to keep the first page one dead waste of conservative ugliness.

R. L. Brown, B.A. 1915, O. P. Campbell, B.A. 1914, and probably B. P. Smith, B.A. 1914, will do work this year in the co-ordinated institutions, Creator Theological Seminary and the University of Pennsylvania. Mr. Brown visited Wake Forest this week.

W. S. Clark, B.A. 1910 was married on June 8 to Miss Emerson of Hodges, S. C. He has recently been drafted and is now in training at Camp Jackson.

Mr. E. E. Eddings, B.A. 1917, is another of the exceedingly fortunate. On September 5 he became the husband of Miss Daisy Outlaw of Kinston, N. C. We understand that Mr. Eddings will teach this year.

June is a happy month, month of roses and weddings. A June rose is rarer than a day in June. Mr. S. A. Fermul, and a June bride is rarest of all. Fred Passal, B.A. 1914, thinks so, for in that month he married Miss Gertrude Loftis of Winston-Salem. As he is married and also mayor of the thriving rabbit-emporium of the world, Star City, Chatham County, N. C., he hopes he may succeed in getting exempted from the draft. His number was among the first.

Speaking of marriages, all the world loves a bridegroom. That accounts for the overwhelming flood of affection setting toward Rev. J. R. Edwards. 1889-90. On September 28, he ended a long period of trying to think he was happy—almost half a century of it—by entering the blissful State of Wedlock, marrying Miss Hudson of Smithfield—"divinely tall and most divinely fair." Mr. Edwards is now pastor of the Baptist Church at Mullins, S. C.

"And ere the summer ended stood the mairie in all it's beauty," and so did Miss Elmina Jennie Las-_siter, stood up before the preacher to become the bride of Mr. F. A. Robbitt, B.A. 1915, now pastor of the church at Pineville. July, 12 was the date, and all the air around Wake Forest was rosy, and the mocking birds sang all night long. You will make us faint with too much joy, you gallant Wake Forest men, if you don't quit marrying so numerously. "Oh, may I get a wife that is beautiful and tender!" such was the dithyrambic strain of some Greek bard, of whom we know nothing except this line. Mr. W. E. Jordan, B.S. 1917, shared in this universal wish until August 2, when wish became reality and he led to the marriage altar Miss Helen Thompson of Wake Forest. Mr. and Mrs. Jordan are now living at that blissful seat, Wake Forest, where, Mr. Jordan is training Wake Forest men for Uncle Sam's future armies.

Dr. W. T. Carstarchfen, B.A. 1897, is attaining prominence among the 4,000 physicians in training at Camp Ogilthorpe. First he was made temporary quack-master for his company. Recently he has been put on the Examining Board, and will read the papers in Physiology and Histology.

J. C. McKnight, 1914-17, is secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Charleston. In the association building at their seaport hundreds of sailors are entertained daily with bath and bed.

H. C. Blackwell, 1915-17, writes that he is secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Jackson. "Hard service," he says, "from 6:00 to late, but the greatest service I have ever had the honor of trying to do."

Ernest L. Poten, 1906-98, is in the commission business with headquarters at Richmond.

Read this: Rev. and Mrs. Baxter Spencer Funderburk announce the marriage of their daughter, Rosa Lee to Mr. John David Caras-_dy, B.A. 1916, L.L.B. 1916, on Sunday, September 23, 1917, Chester-_field, S. C., at home. St. Paul's, N. C.

Does your land pay you more than 3 per cent? Can you borrow money on your land without paying a high rate of interest? Is the LIBERTY BOND probably 4 per cent interest and can be presented at any bank for borrowing money? Since they are the best security you can buy, readily, if necessary. Cracks from the Campus

Advice

Mr. Fleet Williams, whose chief occupations are supervising the local high school reading and interpreting the editorials of the Raleigh Times, and also notes on all phases of the war, has informed the editors of this paper that we have gravely erred in mention the fact that the John Duffys, as alumni of Wake Forest College, have become termites of the highest order. We have since been lanid by the base and accursed error.

Newish O'Neal: "Come on and let's go over to Mute Court and view the case to be tried tonight. Why not Meet Court to hear the case?"

Innumerable have been the jokes pulled on the "long-suffering" water tank. No doubt the glittering showers trickling over its rim are years of joy shed on account of its benediction by the campus. Newish O'Neal is responsible for this humane treatment. Let him go down in the pages of history! Said he, Sunday: "Why in creation did they ever put a water tank on top of the church?"

Yet, we must record the fact that the old tank was mistaken for an elevated 511 by the philosophical J. Everett Hunter. Alas, what other applications shall we hear?

Dr. Gulley Delights Y.M.C.A. Audience

In his own unique fashion Dean Gulley delivered a very helpful and entertaining address to quite a number of ardent and enthusiastic student Y.M.C.A. workers last Monday night. He spoke on the subject "Why have a Y.M.C.A. in College?"

"The Y.M.C.A. has arisen in our college through actual necessity," said the Dean. "This necessity was expressed in the demand for an institution that would cultivate and enlarge one's spiritual life. As a result in the decade between 1830-1840 all three of our state denominational colleges, Wake Forest, Trinity and Davidson arose, and with them has come our modern College Y.M.C.A.

"The College Y.M.C.A. has two distinct missions to perform," said the speaker, "first, to prepare college men for the various forms of Christian service that will be demanded of them after graduation and, second, to give them a larger experience in Christian work which will result in a larger spiritual life."

This was a most helpful and inspiring lecture, illustrated here and there by the rich Christian experience of the speaker. The program committee always has a splendid program for the regular weekly meeting and it is to be hoped that an increasingly large number of students will avail themselves of the opportunity of enjoying these programs. An effort is being made to secure Dr. Weston Bruner, Pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church, in Raleigh, as speaker for next Monday night.

Mr. Quillin Elects Pres. of Berean Class

As Mr. C. M. McCrory the former President of the Berean class has not been able to return to college this fall, Mr. G. S. Quillin has been elected to succeed him as president of the class. The class is to be congratulated on securing the services of Mr. Quillin and on the other hand Mr. Quillin may well regard it as a high privilege to be the head of such a body of men as compose this Berean class.

A Treat for Students

All Wake Forest students may well rejoice in the privileges of the special privileges provided for them in the Wake Forest-Sunday school. This is conceded to be one of the best Sunday-schools in the state. It is especially adapted to suit the needs of the college students. There are four classes in the school especially arranged for students. These classes are taught by men whose scholarship and teaching ability is recognized not only all over the state but, which is almost nation wide. The Sunday school authorities are doing all they can to make it helpful and enjoyable for you and are anxious for you to be a regular attendant. Any student who is not a participant in these services is missing the finest and most delightful treat on the campus.

Most Court Hears Wrangle over Murder Case

The criminal docket of the college Most Court opened Saturday night with a sensational murder case, State vs. Jones, in which many local embryonic spell binders participated. For the defendant appeared Robbins and Johnson while Meyer, Beachboard and Jones assisted in the prosecution.

Star witness for the defendant was H. A. Hanby, alias Mrs. Jones. Despite the fact that Senator Hanby had no little difficulty in assuming the feminine role of Mrs. Jones, the defendant was declared not guilty after the jury had their customary wrangle. Mr. A. Blackman who impersonated the murderer only needed his last spring's mustache to make him a villain which would have turned Nero, or any other of the movie stars, tangle with envy.

Although the case for the next court has not been scheduled, suffice it to say that among the bombastic array of legal talent the murderer of last week is prominent.

Golf Club Plans Improvement

A meeting of the Golf Club will be held sometime next week at which election of new members will be held and the question of a new club house brought up.

It is very necessary that the club should have a house for the use of its members as they are greatly handicapped at the present by the lack of accommodation. With the increased number of members from both the citizens of the town and the student body it will be a question of only a few weeks before Wake Forest should have a club house and golf links that will compare with the best of the state. The links, though not too short, are in a good condition owing to their upkeep during the summer.

J. R. Britt is Elected Manager of Track Team, Assistant Mgr's. Chosen.

At a meeting of the student body J. R. Britt of Calypso was elected Manager of the track team for this session. C. P. Herrig was elected last spring but was unable to be in college this fall, thus the election of Mr. Britt. The new manager is a good student and a hard worker on the track team and it is expected that he will make it a success this year. At the same election B. T. Ward was chosen as assistant Basketball manager and L. S. Spurling as assistant Base Ball manager.

MANAGER PASCHAL WORKING ON BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

Team Will Be Given Games in The State And A Trip If Possible

Manager W. H. Paschal reports that prospects for a good basketball schedule for the coming season are bright, despite war conditions which have forced many colleges to abandon intercollegiate athletics.

Games with the leading colleges in the State are assured, and it is hoped that a number of Y. M. C. A. games can be arranged also. With the strong team that Wake Forest expects, the manager is determined that there shall be no lack of opportunities for displaying its superiority in the indoor sport.

Track Candidates Report. Five Letter Men. Prospect Hopefully

The first call for track candidates made by manager Britt on Monday was answered by five letter men of the year and about fifteen freshmen. Among the last year’s men who can be relied upon are Children and Britt who will take care of the two mile. Thompson and McKaughn who run the hurdles, Savage at the high and broad jumps, Herrig and Purtell with the half mile and Cole with the hammer.

In Bullock, a freshman, the team will have a 220 yard man of no mean ability according to high School reputation. Other freshmen are also expected to show up in the long distances.

Actual practice began Tuesday and the prospects are good for a winning team. Coach MacDonald has consented to aid in putting the team in shape during the time that he is not engaged in foot ball. The track course will be worked on this week and with the active co-operation of the student body track should be raised to the standard of other college athletics this year.

Below are the yells and the College song to be used this year, which Cheer Leader Gibson desires everyone to learn. In accordance with the regulations of the Senate Committee, and also with due respect to other unspoken laws, freshman especially are urged to commit these yells to memory as soon as possible in anticipation of a suitable examination in the near future.

All who attended the Wake Forest—A. & E. Basketball game, at Raleigh last spring probably noticed that when necessary, Mr. Gibson fairly effervesces pep.

To all Wake Forest Men, former Students and Alumni:

This sample copy means we want your subscription to Old Gold and Black at once. It will tell you of what the boys here are doing in Athletics and in the Literary Societies, of the Professors and town of Wake Forest. It will also tell you what former students are doing.

This is now a college paper. Profits go to Athletics. Show some pep and send your dollar now.
