BOILING SPRINGS—The Rev. Leonard Quick has accepted the pastorate of the Seventh Avenue Baptist Church, Gastonia, and will begin service there on Dec. 1.

A Burke County, Ga., native, Rev. Mr. Quick is a graduate of Mercer University, Macon, Ga., and received his B.D. Degree from the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Wake Forest. His experience in the ministry has included service at Pope City Baptist Church near Rochelle, Ga.; the Lovejoy Baptist Church of Lovejoy, Ga., and for the past 6 1/2 years at the Poston Baptist Church of Wallace.

Rev. Mr. Quick accepted the call to the ministry in 1952 and was ordained in 1953. A veteran of three years service in the U.S. Army, he went to elementary and secondary schools at Midville, Ga. He is married to the former Betty Ann Burks of Atlanta, Ga., and the couple has four children. They are Terry 13, Glenda 10, Earl eight and Gerald six.

A lover of fishing and hunting, he also enjoys flying model airplanes as a hobby. He will move to Gastonia in late November.
Former Poston Pastor to Speak At Homecoming and Revival

The Homecoming and Revival Services at the Poston Baptist Church October 11-16 will mean the homecoming of a former pastor, the Rev. Leonard C. Quick. The Homecoming Service will be held Sunday, October 11, at 11 A.M. There will be dinner on the grounds following the service and an afternoon singing around 2 P.M. The revival services will begin in the evening and continue each night at 7:30 P.M. Mr. Quick will speak at each of these services.

Mr. Quick was the pastor of the Poston Church from 1959 to 1965 when he resigned to become pastor in Gastonia. He was born in Jenkins County, Ga., and spent his early years in Midville, Ga. He is a graduate of Mercer University, Macon, Ga. and also of Southeastern Baptist Seminary, Wake Forest. While he was the pastor of the Poston Baptist Church, the second story of the present building was added and the pastorium was built. He is well known and much loved by the people of the church and also in the community where the church is located.

Rev. Quick

The public is cordially invited to attend these services. There will be special music each night of the revival. There will also be a nursery provided.
