Shelby, May 19.—Blaney Rackley, who a few years ago was Wake Forest College’s most famous football carrier, has a new running mate. She is Mrs. Rackley, formerly Miss Dorothy Quattlebaum, of Columbia, S. C. The marriage, it was learned here today, took place at Gaffney, S. C., last Wednesday.

The former Wake Forest star is now athletic director of Boiling Springs College, near Shelby, and Mrs. Rackley was this year head of the foreign language department of the college. Coach Rackley is a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rackley, of Goldsboro, and his bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Quattlebaum, of Columbia, and a grand-daughter of Hon. James Tindal. She was educated at Randolph-Macon and at Sorbonne, Paris.
