It is understood that Honorary Doctorate Degrees are handled at the Southeastern Theological Seminary of Wake Forest, N.C.

Please recommend for these honors the following folks:

Carl Howell Ragland Oxford High School in 1906, Wake Forest College in 1910, taught school many years, practised law, received Master's Degree in Theology from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Kentucky.

He was honored by his church, Enon Baptist, Oxford, N.C. for his Ninetieth birthday in April 1978 and presented a plaque with words of praise from people speaking for Southern, Seminary, WUU, Baptist State Convention of N.C., N.C. State Bar, Flat River Association, Enon Baptist Church, church members and friends.

In appreciation of his loyal support and faithful service as a historian and member of Enon Baptist Church the Annual of the One Hundred and Eighty-Fifth Annual Session of the Flat River Baptist Association of October 10, and 17, 1978 was dedicated to Mr. Carl H. Ragland.

He was an ordained minister of the Gospel, a licensed lawyer.

He had won a Scholarship Award from Oxford High School when he graduated in 1906 which paid his tuition at Wake Forest College for four years with board at $6.00 per month.

He was the oldest of seven children all of whom grew up on a tobacco farm near Oxford.

He never married.

His marvelous memory brought pleasure to the many folks who were constantly asking the dates of local events.

He supplies many easily but said that he could not remember something that had never know.
DEDICATION

CARL H. RAGLAND

In appreciation for his loyal support and faithful service to the Flat River Baptist Association for many years as historian and a member of the Enon Baptist Church, we dedicate the Annual of the One Hundred and Eighty-Fifth Annual Session of the Flat River Baptist Association to Mr. Carl H. Ragland. Mr. Ragland was honored by his church on his ninetieth birthday in 1978. Mr. Ragland is an ordained minister of the Gospel.