Baptist Revival Begins March 28

Rev. Calvin E. Rains, pastor of Carrboro Baptist church, is to be guest preacher for revival services beginning March 28, at the Marshville Baptist church.

Mr. Rains will be present for both Sunday services — 11:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Services will continue throughout the week, each evening at 7:30. Morning services are planned on week days at 10:00 a.m. in the basement of the church.

A native of Oklahoma, Mr. Rains grew up in California. He was a fighter pilot during World War II; was a Navy Chaplain in the Korean War. He is a graduate of Oklahoma Baptist University; received his B.D. degree from Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary in California; and his Th.M. degree from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

He is now serving as chairman of the Yates Baptist Association Student Work Committee, and chairman of the Advisory Board for the new BSU Center at UNC in Chapel Hill. He is married and they have a daughter and two sons.
Who Fired Last Shot Of World War II?

Tar Heel Navy Fighter-Pilot Was Strafing Tokyo Bay Area When Recall Order Came

Twenty years ago this morning a crash cow pilot Lt. Craig E. Rains pulled the trigger of a XF5F Hellcat.

"It was a little after 7 a.m., and Captain John McCain, the mission's task force commander, had just given the order to end aerial combat," said Rains, who had flown as a Navy fighter pilot in World War II. "And I remember thinking, 'This is it.'"

"I was a 25-year-old man, and I had already been给大家 plenty of training and experience. I had flown in several missions, but this was my first chance to fire the guns of a combat aircraft. It was a thrilling moment.

"I pulled the trigger and..."
