Rev. William H. Rittenhouse Jr. will conclude his interim pastorate at Fairview Baptist Church with the showing of a film "The Barbed Wire Preacher" on Feb. 17 at 7:30 p.m.

The film was used on the ABC-TV program "Crossroads" several years ago and is based on the book "God's P.O.W." written by Rev. Rittenhouse.

The book deals with Rev. Rittenhouse's experiences after being shot down and imprisoned in Rumania during World War II.

Rev. Rittenhouse, a native of Macon, Ga., has been serving as pastor of the Fairview Baptist Church for the past few months while awaiting a scheduled evangelistic tour. He will conduct the morning and evening services at the church Sunday.

Rev. Rittenhouse was pastor of several area churches while in school in North Carolina several years ago including Lystra Baptist Church, Bethel Baptist Church and Antioch Baptist Church all near Chapel Hill.

Since leaving North Carolina, he was pastor of Southside Baptist Church, Miami, Fla. Sylvan Hills Baptist Church, Atlanta, Ga.; and Roswell Street Baptist Church, Marietta, Ga.
