

RICHARD W. SADLER

a native of Charlottesville, VA, was called to the ministry about seven years ago. "While getting my BA degree at Columbia Bible College I served as associate pastor at Christian Fellowship Baptist Church in Gaston, SC." At present Mr. Sadler is at Southeastern working toward a Master of Divinity degree. Candice, his wife, is employed at Raleigh Community Hospital as an X-ray technician. The Sadlers have three children. His desire as pastor of New Salem Baptist Church is to see Christians mature in the Lord that they may be active in the great commission of our Lord.
