From Boiling Springs.

Rev. C. W. Salter, of Lowryville, S. C., after two and one-half years pastorate at Boiling Springs (Cleveland county) preached his farewell sermon on Sunday, Dec. 31st, 1905. Bro. Salter has done excellent work for our town. He stands high as an earnest, consecrated worker for the Master. During all his pastorate here he did not miss a single appointment, notwithstanding he had to travel forty-five miles to reach us. He was largely instrumental in the building of a neat and handsome house of worship which is completed except pulpit and seats.

Bro. Salter was re-elected but felt impressed to devote his whole time to a field nearer his home.

The Treasurer's report showed two hundred and forty-two dollars as pastor's salary for one Sunday in the month, had been raised and paid over before the year was out.

Bro. Salter gave the church much good advice in his last sermon and closed by coming down from the pulpit, taking his successor by the hand and in an audible manner turned the church over to him with such loving words as to bring tears to the eyes of the audience. We feel sure that while Bro. Salter is now in another field, he is still praying for the success of our church under the care and labors of our new pastor. He realizes, along with us, that we have in the person of Rev. J. V. Devenny one of the leading pastors of the State.

Bro. Devenny has now located at Boiling Springs. He has been placed in the lead by the King's Mountain and Stanly Run Associations in establishing, jointly, for the two associations at this place a school to be known as the Boiling Springs High School.
