Services To Begin Sept. 28 At Fellowship

Evangelist Services will be held at the Fellowship Baptist Church, Union Cross, beginning Sunday, September 28th and continuing through Friday, October 3rd at 7:30 p.m. each evening.

The evangelist for these services will be Dr. William E. Sampson, pastor of the Sheets Memorial Baptist Church at Lexington, North Carolina. In addition to his pastoral duties, Dr. Sampson has been active in the evangelistic field as well as the radio ministry. He has been preaching over forty years.

There will be a special emphasis each evening: Sunday will be Everyone-Bring-One Night; Monday Pack-A-Pew Night; Tuesday-Family Night; Wednesday-Loyalty Night; Thursday-Youth Night; Friday-Sunday School Night.

Special music will be provided by various singing groups and the church choir. The nursery will be available each evening for babies and small children.

On Sunday, October 5th, the church will have its annual homecoming. Dinner will be served on the church grounds and there will be a musical program presented by quartets and other singing groups.

The pastor of the church, Rev. Ray M. Walls, cordially invites the public to attend these services.

Fellowship Baptist Church is located south of Kernersville on Hedgecock Road, just off Union Cross Road.
Dr. William Edgar Sampson, 74, of R. 3, Lexington, died at 7:15 a.m. today in Lexington Memorial Hospital. He had been ill for four months.

He was born in Richmond, Va. March 12, 1899 to Aaron L. and Carrie Ahern Sampson. He was a retired pastor of Sheets Memorial Baptist Church, where he served for 14 years. He was a teacher at Piedmont Bible College in Winston-Salem for five years, and was chairman of the college's executive board.

Before coming to Lexington he was pastor of Calvary Church in Grand Rapids, Mich., which was founded by Dr. M. R. Dehaan.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Minnie McDaniel Sampson, of the home; one sister, Mrs. F. W. (Catherine) Smith of Richmond, Va.; two brothers, Aaron J. Sampson and J. Luther Sampson, both of Richmond, Va.; and one granddaughter, Mrs. Carol Bundy of Richmond.

The body is at Davidson Funeral Home where the family will see friends from 7 to 9 Wednesday night.

Funeral service will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday from Sheets Memorial Baptist Church by Dr. Charles Stevens and Dr. Donald Drake of Piedmont Bible College. Burial will follow in Forest Hill Memorial Park.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be sent to Piedmont Bible College.
EDEN — MRS. MAGGIE
L. HAMLIN, 88, of Eden, Rt. 1, widow of John H. Hamlin, died Monday. The funeral will be 2 p.m. today at Little Bethlehem Christian Church, where she was a member. Mrs. Hamlin was born in Rockingham County. Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Artis Broadnax of Eden, Mrs. Daisy Searcy of Winston-Salem, Mrs. Bernice Weldon of Flint, Mich.; five sons, Raymond, Henry Hamlin of Eden, Marvin, Herman Hamlin of Flint, Garland Hamlin of Binghamton, N. Y.; a sister, Mrs. Viola Martin of Eden; a brother, Sam Lester of Reidsville. (McLaurin, Reidsville.)

Retired Baptist Minister Dies

LEXINGTON — The Rev. William Edgar Sampson, 74, of Lexington, Rt. 3, died yesterday at Lexington Memorial Hospital. The funeral will be at 2 p.m. Thursday at Sheets Memorial Baptist Church, where he was a member and former pastor.

Mr. Sampson was born in Richmond, Va., and was a retired pastor. Before coming to Lexington he had served as pastor at churches in Texas, Harvey, Ill., Grand Rapids, Mich., and Richmond.

He had taught at Piedmont Bible College in Winston-Salem five years and had served on the college's executive board 14 years.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Minnie McDaniel Sampson; a sister, Mrs. F. W. Smith of Richmond; and two brothers, Aaron J. and J. Luther Sampson of Richmond.

The body is at Davidson Funeral Home.