I corresponded with Miss Onnie Skinner also direct descendant of Emmanuel/Emmanuel Skinner who was an aged retired school teacher. The information from the following letter was written April 22, 1980. Miss Onnie is now deceased. She lived in Murray, Kentucky (Calloway County)

quote:

"The Skinner line is this as we have it from the old Skinner Bible

Emmanuel Skinner and wife Elizabeth (Moore) had these children: (few dates given) JOSIAH, JESSIE, ELIZABETH, LYDIA and BATHSHEBA

Josiah marries twice, by first marriage he had:

    Letisha, July 23, 1792
    Sany, January 6, 1794
    Rebecca, September 26, 1797
    William, November 17, 1800 (our gr grandfather)
    Charlestoy, December 22, 1803
    Pamela Highsmith 1804

Bathsheba married Wiley Holland

Elizabeth (1808) married a Brandon

Lydia (1806) married Brandon

by second marriage, Josiah Skinner had these children:

    Washington L, 1819
    Josiah W 1821
    James 1825
    Mary 1828 (married a Farley)

Onnie Skinner said her father recorded that three Skinner brothers

EMMANUEL, SAMSON AND CORDIE came to this country from England before the Revolution and settled in Virginia. Baptist preachers were persecuted so Emmanuel left Va, went to Tennessee County N.C. and thence to Robertson County Tn where he died. There were also two Skinner girls who married Hollands. One was Wiley Holland who married B,athsheba Skinner (dau of Emmanuel) and Daniel Holland M.D. who married Rebecca Skinner dau of Josiah Skinner.

Now for our family beginning with William Skinner, our great grandfather:

William Skinner, who organized Elm Grove Baptist Church, Calloway Co. Ky. He was pastor of it for several years and became pastor of First Baptist Church, Murray Kentucky (Calloway Co.) until his death.

Joseph Skinner, our grandfather, married Sarah Outland.

James Edward Skinner (1868-1905) and Emily Miller Skinner, our parents, had these children:

- J. Glenn Skinner, business man Nashville Tn (1888-1959)
- Onnie Grey Skinner (1890) teacher
- Reuel T. Skinner (1892-1978) pastor 1st Church Bowling Green Ky for 12 years and editor of Western Recorder—also served churches in Alabama & Tennessee.
- Carley Wilson Skinner died at 18 mo (1895-1898)
- William Carey Skinner (1895-1979) served as pastor in both Ky and Tn
- Annie Skinner 1897 married preacher, Lyn Claybrook
- Marie Skinner 1901 (teacher)
- Ed Miller Skinner (1905) pastor of churches in Ky, Texas, and Arizona

The above is the record of our family as we have it.

Sincerely

Onnie Skinner

Dear Sir,

I am researching the family of the Rev. John Moore, Sr. and his son-in-law Emanuel Skinner (also Baptist minister) who were associated with the Falls of Tar River in Nash County ca 1748/1780 - members of Kehukee Association of Baptist 1765. John Moore evidently died in N.C. but Emanuel Skinner migrated to Robertson Co. Tn about 1798. If you have any church minutes relating to this association in this particular period of time or any information on these ministers please inform me and how the materials would be made available to me. Any help most appreciated.

Yours truly,

Mrs. Dallas M. Lancaster
Church at the Falls of Tar River, Nash County, North Carolina.

This is an ancient and respectable church. According to the best accounts we can get, this church was constituted on Swift Creek, by elders C. Daniel and John Moore, in the year 1757. Whether the church was constituted on the Free-will or Regular Baptist order, we are not able to say. Elder John Moore was their pastor a number of years, while the church was on the regular plan. But in 1780, he took a dismission from the church and moved out of the neighbourhood. After this, Emmanuel Skinner, a worthy member of this church being an ordained minister, and raised up in the church, supplied the place of a pastor, but was never appointed by the church to that office. In September, 1797, he took a dismission from the church and moved to Cumberland in Tennessee.....
