WF Names Alumni Official

Jack K. Talbert, former assistant to the vice president of administration of Brenner Iron and Metal Co. of Winston-Salem, has been named an assistant director in the Office of Development and Alumni Affairs at Wake Forest University.

M. Henry Garrity, director of the office, said Talbert will be in charge of the university’s annual giving program and responsible for programs at the 100 alumni clubs scattered throughout the country. He also will work as liaison between each year’s senior class and the development office.

Talbert received the B.B.A. degree from Wake Forest in 1967. Previously he had been an electronics engineer on guided missiles with the U. S. Air Force. Before entering Wake Forest he worked for Cooper D. Cass Co. of Winston-Salem. Talbert is a native of Altavista, Va., and graduated from New Hanover High School in Wilmington.

His mother, Mrs. John B. Talbert, lives at 600 Lynhaven Drive, Winston-Salem. He and his wife, who teaches at Wiley Junior High School, live at 2827 Teakwood Court.
