Pastor Welcomed At Easton Baptist

The Rev. L. A. Talbert, 57, is the new pastor at Easton Baptist Church, 3200 Heitman Drive. He came here from Cartledge Creek Baptist Church near Rockingham, where he served for almost nine years.

Talbert and his wife, the former Ava Barnette, are from Charlotte. They have three daughters: Rebecca, a sophomore at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro; Lois, a senior at Parkland High School, and Jane, a 10th-grader at Hill High School.

The church honored the Talberts Sunday with a reception.

The pastor is a graduate of Wake Forest University and Southern Baptist Seminary. He also has served congregations in Taswell, Va. and Owensboro, Ky.

He succeeds the Rev. Hoyle E. Langford, who resigned more than a year ago to become superintendent of missions at Columbus Baptist Association.
Church Notes

Pastor Welcomed At Easton Baptist

By VIRTIE STROUP
Staff Religion Reporter

The Rev. L. A. Talbert, 57, is the new pastor at Easton Baptist Church, 3200 Heitman Drive. He came here from Cartledge Creek Baptist Church near Rockingham, where he served for almost nine years.

Talbert and his wife, the former Ava Barnette, are from Charlotte. They have three daughters: Rebecca, a sophomore at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro; Lois, a senior at Parkland High School, and Jane, a 10th-grader at Hill High School.

The church honored the Talberts Sunday with a reception.

The pastor is a graduate of Wake Forest University and Southern Baptist Seminary. He also has served congregations in Tassell, Va. and Owensboro, Ky.

He succeeds the Rev. Hoyle E. Langford, who resigned more than a year ago to become superintendent of missions at Columbus Baptist Association.

Church Events

-Evansville Church will sponsor a "Girl Scouts" program.

-Girl Scouts' silver awards will be announced at the Evansville Church.

Church Notes
L.A. Talbert, a former pastor of Cartledge Creek Baptist Church, has returned to this church. Mr. Talbert and family moved into the church parsonage January 17th. The Talberts have three daughters, Rebecca in the ninth grade, Lois, in the seventh, and Jane in the fifth.

Mr. Talbert came to Cartledge Creek June 17th, 1954 from Tazewell, Virginia. In August 1958 he returned to Tazewell, Virginia. He comes to Cartledge Creek from Cove Creek Baptist Church, Vilas, N.C., a few miles from Boone.

The Talberts are warmly welcomed back into the community and the Pee Dee Association.
Revival Services will be in progress at the First Baptist Church (Hamlet Avenue) of Hamlet Monday, March 9-13, 1970. Services will be held twice daily -- 10:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Dr. L. H. Hollingsworth will be introduced to the congregation of the First Baptist Church, Hamlet Avenue, Hamlet, Sunday evening, March 8, at seven o'clock. He will be the speaker for the week in a series of revival services. Doctor Hollingsworth was born in Greenville, S.C., reared in Asheville, and is a graduate of Wake Forest College and Southeastern Seminary. He served in World War II as an army chaplain and has spent much time ministering to youth. He was pastor at Boone (where Appalachian is located) for six years and was chaplain at Wake Forest University for ten years. His other responsibilities as pastor have given him experiences with adults which make for a well-rounded ministry. He is now pastor of Emerywood Baptist Church of High Point.

Rev. L. A. Talbert, pastor of the Cartledge Creek Baptist Church of Rockingham, will direct the congregational singing at the First Baptist Church of Hamlet March 9-13. Mr. Talbert is on his second "tour of duty" at the Cartledge Creek Church. After having moved to Virginia for several years, he was called back. He is now in his fourth year as pastor. Mr. Talbert was born in Cabarrus County, but spent much of his early life in Charlotte. He is a graduate of Wake Forest College (cum laude) and also from Southern Seminary in Louisville, Ky.