G. C. Teague pastored Samaria while attending Wake Forest College. Following graduation, he was called to Lowe's Creek Church, Lenoir, North Carolina. After serving there five years, he attended Southeastern Seminary. He was married October 1919 and had one son and one daughter. His son Forrest served as pastor of Samaria Church near Zebulon and later went to Shelby. He died in 1969. His widow is Jean M. Teague, a missionary associate in Amman, Jordan.

Grover Teague held several pastorates in North Carolina and one in Tennessee. At the time of his death, he was pastor of Union Baptist Church in the Kings Mountain Association. He died of a heart attack October 10, 1952.

REV. G. T. MILLS
Twenty-first Pastor Served Samaria
1926-1928
RHWAY 26, near Polkville, was the site of a group of members meeting in a tent. This group originated from the Campbells who worshiped. A site was chosen by M. Mauney, and a one-room building was erected. This building was replaced by a second and more up-to-date building, and during the pastorate of Rev. D. G. Washburn, a second and more up-to-date building was erected on the church lot.

The enrollment in 1899 was 179 and in his third year as pastor, Mr. Washburn served. R. Newton Hawkins, A. P. Hollifield, G. M. Webb, Rev. D. G. Washburn, and A. M. Kiser are among the early leaders of the church.

The organization of the church was begun by Rev. G. C. Teague, the third in line of four preacher brothers, born and reared in Alexander County, North Carolina. He was educated at Taylorsville, Wake Forest College and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky. He has served as Pastor of Lower Creek Baptist Church of Lenoir, N. C., The First Baptist Churches of Marshall, Granite Falls, Sylva, N. C., and Spring City, Tennessee, also Antioch Baptist Church in Alexander County, N. C. and Patterson Grove and Union Baptist Churches in the Kings Mountain Association and is the present pastor of Union Baptist Church. He was for four years a member of the N. C. Baptist State Mission Board, was Moderator of the Caldwell Baptist Association for two years and is at present president of the Baptist Pastor's Conference of the Kings Mountain Association.

He married Miss Elsie Forrest of Niota, Tennessee. They have two children, Forrest and Ruth and live in the parsonage at Union.

G. C. Teague departed this life October 12, 1952.

REV. D. G. WASHBURN

In 1911, the beloved Rev. D. G. Washburn, became Pastor of Union Baptist Church and served in that capacity for twenty-eight years. It is to the memory of Mr. Washburn, who played such a vital role in its church history, that the church wished to dedicate this page.
