Spencer Baptist Church of Spindale will begin a revival service in connection with the Crusade of The Americas March 24-30.

The Rev. Felix Wagner, former pastor of that church from 1945 to 1951 will be the visiting speaker. He is now the pastor of Wayside Baptist Church in Florida.

The Rev. Wagner is a native of Pennsylvania. He became a Christian while still a teen-ager and received his education at Davis Memorial Bible College in New York, Gardner-Webb College and Wofford College. He has also studied at the University of Munich and Southwestern Seminary.

The Rev. Wagner is remembered for his depth of Bible teaching and preaching and for his interest in young people. A number of young people of Spencer Church volunteered for the ministry and foreign missions under his ministry.

Malone Thomason, minister of music, will direct the music during the revival.

MAR 19 1969
Rev. Felix R. Wagner, pastor of the Wayside Baptist church, Miami, Fla., will be the evangelist in revival services at the Spencer Baptist church, March 24-30. Mal­ lone Thomason, minister of music of the church, will direct the music.

Since Mr. Wagner served the Spencer church as pastor from 1945-1951, he is no stranger to many people in Spindale. While serving the church here he was outstanding for the depth of his Bible teaching and preaching and his work with young people. During his ministry a number of young people dedicated them­ selves to the ministry, missions, education and music ministries.

Mr. Wagner is a native of New Jersey. He was educated at Gardner-Webb and Wofford colleges, and Davis Memorial Bible college in New York. He has also studied at the University of Munich, Munich, Germany, and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas. He was a member of Student's League of Many Nations for three years, appearing in over one thousand churches, schools, etc., in the United States. His overseas trav­ els include Europe, Israel, and Mediterranean tours, South Amer­ ican Preaching Tour and Trinidad Evangelistic Crusade.

Since leaving Spindale he has been pastor of Second Baptist church, Lancaster, S. C., First Baptist church, Muskogee, Okla., and in April, 1963, he went to his present pastorate. He has also served in a number of state and Southern Baptist positions of lea­ dership.

The revival is in cooperation with the Crusade of Americas, an effort by North and South Ameri­ can Baptists to make known “Christ the Only Hope.” Sunday school departments and classes are making an effort to encourage people to attend; deacons are visiting in the homes of each church member and the choirs are planning special music for each evening.

Church nurseries will be open for children through three years of age each evening.

Services will be broadcast each evening at 7:30 p.m. over radio station WBBO.
Revival Leaders

The Rev. Felix Wagner, evangelist and Bible lecturer, and his wife, Betty, a soloist, of Oklahoma, will be guests of King Memorial Baptist church for revival services at 7:30 p.m. Sunday through Thursday.

The Rev. and Mrs. Wagner serve under the Church Related Ministries organization and have recently participated in crusades in South Africa and Hong Kong. Wagner has pastored at churches in the Carolinas, Florida, Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma. Mrs. Wagner has cut several gospel albums. Her most recent albums, “Remind Me, Dear Lord” and “Day Is Awaking” feature contemporary and traditional gospel hymns.

Dr. Jimmy Sellars, pastor, invites the public to these revival services.

Wagners Touch Lives In A Traveling Ministry

By Jean Gordon

From the "very affluent" churches in the country to the "very poor" ones overseas, the Wagners are spending at least 10 months of the year on the road, sharing what they have and teaching with members of the churches here and overseas, "Wagner said, stating he and Betty are able to serve the Lord in ways we never imagined.

"We have found that our life is wonderful," Wagner said, stating he and Betty are able to serve the Lord in ways we never imagined.
