

Pastor Ordained For Silver Creek Church

Rev. Robert E. Valentine of Morganton who has been called by the Silver Creek Baptist Church members to be their new pastor was officially ordained Sunday at 3 p.m. at the Southside Baptist Church in Morganton.

Rev. Virgil Morrow and Rev. Horace Crouse officiated at the ceremonies. A number of other ministers including Rev. Van Murrell of Gardner-Webb College participated.

Mr. Valentine, a native of Columbus, Ohio, is married to the former Miss Jean Kanipe of Morganton and they have two children, Donna, age 10 and Genelle age two.

The Valentines interests are concerned mostly with Church work and community affairs, especially School organizations and PTA. They are sportsminded and enjoy young people. Mr. Valentine likes to hunt. They both enjoy gardening and Mrs. Valentine likes sewing and the other activities offered by the Tryon Fine Arts Center.

Mr. Valentine also studies Bible at Fruitland Bible Institute at Fruitland.
