Guest speaker at the revival services of Providence Baptist Church will be the Rev. Robert L. Yates, pastor of the West End Baptist Church, Henderson.

Services will begin at 7 p.m. on Sunday, March 21, extending through Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Yates is a graduate of Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. He received his bachelor of divinity degree from the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary of Wake Forest.

Having served a number of years in the United States Army Corps of Engineers, Yates then served pastorates in Richmond, Waynesboro, and Manassas in Virginia and in Martinsburg in West Virginia, before coming to his present pastorate of West End Baptist Church in 1981. Yates gives outstanding leadership in associational and statewide denominational activities.

The church music director, Mrs. Ruby Royster, has planned special music throughout the services. A special time with the children is planned each evening. A nursery will be provided.
Members of Vaughan Baptist Church are pleased to have Bob Yates of Henderson as their minister. The church is celebrating its 100th anniversary throughout this year. Rev. Yates' favorite verse is:

Isaiah 40:31

They that hope in the LORD will renew their strength, they will soar as with eagles' wings, They will run and not grow weary, walk and not grow faint.
