

Carolina

CLIPPING SERVICE
1115 HILLSBORO
RALEIGH, NC 27603
TEL. (919) 833-2079

NEWS-LEADER
FREMONT, N. C.

APR 29 99

29 / CHARLIE R. WILSON

The Rev. Charlie Ray Wilson, 51, of Ayden died April 17 at Pitt County Memorial Hospital from injuries suffered in an automobile accident. The funeral was held at 11 a.m. Saturday at United American Free Will Baptist Tabernacle, Kinston. Burial was in Ayden Cemetery.

Wilson was pastor of Union, Grove Free Will Baptist Church of Stantonsburg and Thompson Chapel Free Will Baptist Church of Goldsboro. He was district elder of District No. 3 Union, and a 32nd degree Mason in Queen of South Lodge No. 77.

Surviving are his wife, Alice Marie Forbes Wilson; three daughters, Natasha Wilson and Porsha Wilson, both of Ayden, and Allison Wilson of Wilson; one son, Felix F. Wilson of the home; four sisters, Bernice Murphy and Mary Coles, both of Ayden, Dollie Mewborn of Asbury Park, N.J., and Glenda Cannon of Neptune, N.J.; one brother, James M. Wilson of Moseley, Va.; and one grandchild.

Arrangements are being handled by Norcott and Company Funeral Home.