

Student Addresses Jr. Woman's Club

Miss Sophie Luong, a Vietnamese student at Wake Forest University, was Tuesday evening's guest speaker at the meeting of the Junior Woman's Club of Winston-Salem. The monthly meeting was held at the Woman's Club on Fourth Street. Mrs. Lorin Wood presided.

Mrs. George McSwain, chairman of the Department of International Affairs, introduced Miss Luong whose ten member family came from Saigon to Winston-Salem five months ago.

Miss Luong spoke of her life in both North and South Vietnam, her years as an exchange student in Houston, Texas, and of the help her family has received on relocation.

Currently she is enrolled in WFU, studying toward a degree in business.

Mrs. Wood reported on the annual fall meeting of District Six of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs held in Lexington. Several club members were in attendance.

Major projects were evaluated for the coming year. Proposed by-law changes were voted upon, followed by a general discussion of the club's objectives.

To financially aid Project Concern, a pumpkin was passed by the project chairman, Mrs. Rondal Sharpe, in keeping with Halloween theme.

W-S JOURNAL

10/8/75