Glady Branch Announces New Pastor

The Rev. Ted S. Mace, pastor of the Inanda Baptist Church in Asheville for three and one half years, has accepted a call to the Glady Branch Baptist Church.

A native of Newton, he received his education in the public schools of Catawba County, Catawba Tech., Hickory, Mars Hill College, and graduated from Fruitland Bible Institute, Hendersonville, in 1972. He presently in enrolled in the extension program of Luther Rice Seminary, Jacksonville, Florida.

He is married to the former Jessie Greer of Roanoke, Va.

They have no children.

Mr. Mace began his work at Glady Branch on May 11. He and the church extend an invitation to everyone to visit with them at Glady Branch.