Special to THE CHRONICLE

The Rev. Tony Neal Sr., Associate Minister of Goodwill Baptist Church, has been named the pastor of the Righteous Church of God in Midway, North Carolina.

Pastor Neal is a native of North Carolina. He is the son of King David and Carolyn Neal. He was united in marriage to the former Michelle Cuthrell in 1990. Their marriage has been blessed by the birth of their son, Tony L. Neal Jr.

Pastor Neal was actively involved at Goodwill Baptist Church, which included the following responsibilities: member of the GBC Choir, the Gospel Choir, helped organized a co-ed softball team, a men's basketball team, youth Sunday school teacher, youth Bible study teacher, Forsyth

Court Volunteer for young teens and the deacon board until he was called into the ministry in 1995.

Neal is a 1985 graduate of R. J. Reynolds High School and is currently enrolled at Vintage Bible College. His goal is to achieve an associates degree in Biblical studies, then to pursue a bachelor's of theology degree.
