Local Man Ordained By Church

DURHAM—One of New Bern’s native sons, Harry R. Kahn, was ordained as a minister of the Southern Baptist Convention here during services recently.

The Rev. Kahn, who is the son of Mrs. Walter L. Griffin of 1404 MacArthur Ave., New Bern, is a senior at Campbell College. He has been accepted at Southeastern Seminary for the term beginning January 1974.

Ordination services for Mr. Kahn were held at the Bethesda Church here. Prior to his ordination he served Pleasant Memory church as minister of youth.

He and his wife Evelyn have one daughter, Kathy.
W. Edgecombe Ch.
Calls Harry Kahn

Harry Kahn has been called as Associate Pastor and Minister of Youth at the West Edgecombe Baptist Church.

Kahn is a native of New Bern, a graduate of Campbell College and a second semester student at Southeastern Baptist Seminary in Wake Forest. He is married to the former Evelyn Watson of New Bern and they have one daughter, Kathy, four-years-old.