Pierce of Bethel Hill preached the ordination sermon and offered the ordination prayer. Bro. M. A. Adams delivered the charge to the candidate, and Bro. C. A. Rominger presented the Bible."

Jan. 1st, 1896: A call was extended to Dr. J. A. Mundy, of Wilson, N. C., which was accepted, he taking up the work Jan. 25th, 1896. He was a most excellent preacher and made many friends both in and out of the church membership.

Nov. 25th, 1897: The church suffered the loss of one of its most loyal and consistent members, in the person of H. K. Reid. A window was later placed in the church in his memory by his family, which continues to remind us of his many valuable contributions to the growth of the church.
