Rev. Steven Kavli Is New Hope Interim Pastor

The Rev. Steven Kavli is currently serving as the interim pastor of New Hope Baptist Church in Brevard, following the April retirement of the pastor, the Rev. Douglas (Pete) Lee.

Rev. Kavli and his wife, Sue, have served as career missionaries in Thailand through the Southern Baptist International Mission Board. They came to Brevard to visit with relatives during the fall of 1997 while on furlough from their missions work in the Bangkla Village, 80 miles east of Bangkok.

The couple's two teenage daughters, Rebecca and Sarah, are presently attending Brevard High School.

Rev. Kavli holds a master of divinity degree. Prior to his commission as a missionary, he served as a hospital chaplain and pastored several churches.

Mrs. Kavli, who holds master's degrees in computer science and statistical analysis, has previously worked as a computer systems manager.

New Hope Baptist Church members extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend the weekly services. Sunday School begins at 10 a.m.; Discipleship Training at 6 p.m.; and worship services at 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. Wednesday evening Bible study and missions programs begin at 7 p.m.

New Hope Church is located off the Rosman Highway on Goodneighbor Drive near Harmony Corner.
