Ordination service set Sunday at Old Liberty Baptist Church

The Old Liberty Missionary Baptist Church will have an ordination service for the Rev. Dazale Vines Kearney on Sunday, May 31, 4 p.m.

The Rev. Kearney was born in Nash County and reared in Granville and Franklin counties. She is the daughter of Cassie Lee Vines and the late Grover Vines Sr. She is married to Tony N. Kearney, trustee, and they have two children, Tony Alexander and Kelzie Shavon. They reside in Franklinton.

The Rev. Kearney is a member of Old Liberty Missionary Baptist Church, Youngsville. The Rev. Larry Evans is the pastor. She is active in her church and community. She is associate minister, youth director, Missionary Circle youth supervisor, a member of the Young Adult Missionary Circle, member of the Pastor's Aid and the Gospel Choir.

The Rev. Kearney is also the young adult second vice president of the Franklin County NAACP, member of the NCAWM, president of the NCAWM Franklin County Chapter, member of the Franklin County Literacy Council, Guardian Ad Litem Program for Abused and Neglected Children and a member of the Franklinton City School Board.

The Rev. Kearney works part-time with the Area Mental Health Substance Abuse Program of Vance, Warren, Granville and Franklin counties, as court liaison, Variety Wholesaler Inc., Franklinton, re-packing, and Franklin County School System as substitute teacher.

The Rev. Ronald Avery of St. Matthew Baptist Church will preach and his choir will sing. All are invited.