Reception
Will Honor
Lackey

A reception will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. tomorrow at Flat Creek Baptist Church in honor of the Rev. J. H. Lackey, pastor, who has resigned to become assistant pastor of Matlock Baptist Church in Jackson, S. C. Rev. Mr. Lackey has been in the ministry 51 years, of which 20 years were spent at the Flat Creek Baptist Church. He is a graduate of Mercer University, Macon, Ga., and Furman University, Greenville, S. C. He has also served churches in Olar and Alamance, S. C.
John Lackey,
Former Baptist
Minister, Dies

JACKSON, S.C. — The Rev. John Henry Lackey of 615 First St., Jackson, died Friday in an Augusta, Ga., hospital after a long illness.

He was a native of Lula, Ga., and had lived in Jackson for the past two years. He was a retired Baptist minister and served in the Alamance Baptist Church in Alamance, N.C., Olar First Baptist Church in Olar, S.C., Colston Baptist Church in Colston, S.C., and Bethel Baptist Church in Ulmer, S.C., and 20 years at Flat Creek Baptist Church in Weaverville, N.C. He was a member of Jackson First Baptist Church.

He is survived by the wife, Grace B. Lackey; a son, Leonard H. Lackey of Richmond, Va.; two daughters, Margaret Hiers of Jackson, S.C., and Joyce Morris of Olar; four brothers, Buford Lackey of Greenville, S.C., Dillard Lackey of Trinity, Rupert Lackey of Graham, N.C., and Lewis Lackey of Lula, Ga.; six sisters, Margie and Lola Lackey, Mrs. George Adamson and Mrs. Zora Lee Ryals of Lula, Susie Baughman of Mauldin, S.C., Dorine Wagoner of Gibsonville, N.C., eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday in Matlock Baptist Church. Burial will be in Jackson Memorial Cemetery.

Posey’s Funeral Home, North Augusta, S.C., is in charge of arrangements.